

M. R. GUGGENHEIM TELLS OF RANSOM DEAL WITH MEANS

Testifies in Trial of Former Justice Department Agent Return of Lindbergh Baby Was Planned.

WANTED SOMEONE TO RECEIVE CHILD

Witness Says He Was Told That Former Prison Acquaintance of Detective Had Planned Kidnaping.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—(Testimony that Gaston B. Means initiated negotiations with Col. M. Robert Guggenheim and promised to return the kidnapped Lindbergh baby was given by Guggenheim today in Means' trial on charges of swindling Mrs. Edward B. McLean out of $104,000 in an alleged ransom fraud. The defense rested its case late today without presenting a witness.

Amid heated exchanges with T. Morris Wampler, counsel for the defense, Guggenheim testified in the District of Columbia Supreme Court that Means, a former Department of Justice agent, assured him on last March 5, four days after the baby was stolen, that the kidnaping was in league with one of Means' former Atlanta penitentiary mates.

Guggenheim, a friend of the Lindberghs, testified over strenuous objection by the defense. He told of agreeing to receive the Lindbergh baby, asked whether the baby was delivered, he replied, "No, sir."

Wampler immediately objected, and United States Attorney Leo A. Rover changed his line of inquiry.

Tells of Meeting Means. Describing how Means met him through a mutual acquaintance, Guggenheim said they came together last March 5 in the home of Robert F. Fleming at Edgemoor, Md. Means, Guggenheim continued, related that some time before the kidnaping he had talked to a former prison mate in a New York speakeasy, and had been informed of plans for an important kidnaping.

After reading about the Lindbergh kidnaping Guggenheim said Means told him it had been done by persons in league with his speakeasy acquaintance.

"What we want," Guggenheim quoted Means, "is somebody to keep the child for 48 or 72 hours without letting anybody know. . . . I think we will probably be able to deliver the baby without any fuss. These people are anxious to get rid of it."

Guggenheim wanted to know why Means was interested, he continued, saying Means told him that, having been in jail he was eager to do something like returning the Lindbergh baby. Means also said he felt Guggenheim could effect the return, he would "have more business than I can handle for the next 10 years."

Guggenheim testified that Means arranged to return the baby through him and allow it to be identified by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh before any ransom was paid.

Reality Man Testifies. Fleming, who followed Guggenheim on the stand, corroborated his story of how Means assured him he could recover the baby because of a business connection with the kidnapers.

Fleming quoted Means as telling him that not long before the baby was stolen Means met a former fellow prisoner in a New York speakeasy. This man, Fleming said, Means told him, informed Means of plans for a kidnaping which would be connected with him, Fleming said, adding that Means told him he then went back to New York, made a contact with his friend, and found that his theory was correct.

It was because of this, Fleming said Means assured him he knew he could return the Lindbergh baby. The witness said he was "told me to keep my mouth shut; that if I didn't, I might be bumped off."

The prosecution then rested.

Testimony Yesterday. In weaving the Government's case about the former Justice Department investigator, Rover yesterday elicited from witnesses that Means had passed nine $100 bills in making purchases for personal use after Mrs. McLean turned over to him the $100,000 of ransom money he is charged with embezzling. Much of this money was in $100 bills. However, he also had $4000 expense money.

Five of the $100 bills were spent in Concord, N. C., to buy chickens, a shotgun, shells and a refrigerator. One was changed in the purchase of a raincoat, another for an overcoat, and two more went to buy four suits of clothes.

Paroled Youth Resentenced. PITTSBURGH, June 10.—Pleading guilty to transporting a stolen automobile from New York to Erie, Pa., Harry Thomas alias Kid Kauffman, 24 years old, was sentenced to a year in prison yesterday. Thomas was on parole from the Federal Reformatory in Chillicothe, O., where he had been committed for an automobile theft in St. Louis in October, 1930.

that two other men, who apparently were sharing his room, would work with him. Mrs. Watson said she expressed surprise, as Dody had been a staunch union man as long as she had known him. He told her, she said, "no one will know where I am working."

According to Mrs. Watson, Ben Dody was 52 years old, and was divorced. He moved from the South Broadway address following her visit, she said she learned, and occupied a room with his son at 817 South Fourth street. Prior to last December, Ben Dody had lived in Collinsville, moving to St. Louis to work for the St. Louis & North American Building & Common Laborers' Union, issued at Collinsville. The bodies were taken to the Pilech Undertaking Co., 898 Easton avenue, where they were identified by Mrs. Watson, and by Ben Dody's niece, Mrs. Edna Haynes, of 8804 Hulekamp avenue, Jennings.

Ben Dody was the father of two daughters, Frances, employed in a St. Louis laundry, and Agnes Dody of East St. Louis.

Police Chief Says Strikers Had Asked for Protection.

Chief of Police Gerk said he received a delegation of six representatives of striking employees of the General Material Co., who requested protection yesterday.

Chief Gerk said he questioned the men and outlined for them the steps police have taken to avert disorder. The union men told him, Chief Gerk said, that they would not tolerate violence by their members and wished to avoid trouble.

They appeared satisfied with the precautionary measures taken by the Police Department, Gerk said. The men, laborers and holding engineers, went on strike at the General Material Co. on May 16, when the company announced that time and a half pay for overtime and double time for Sunday and holiday work would be discontinued.

The firm has since operated its five plants with non-union labor under protection of 120 policemen. During the early stages of the strike, the police arrested 25 men described as strikers, who, the officers said, threw stones and fired ball-bearings from sling shots at strikebreakers.

More recently there were instances of strikers who were beaten by assailants, who fled in automobiles. In a raid on the Northwestern Hotel early this week police arrested 13 men from strikebreakers. A search of the rooms then occupied and of four automobiles parked at the rear of the hotel showed blood-stained pick handles and baseball bats. Five union men, who were beaten severely, reported the assailants used pick handles.

Warrants charging assault to kill were obtained against seven of the 13 strikebreakers, who told police that they were brought to St. Louis by the Railway Audit & Inspection Co. on promises of $100 a week and expenses to drive trucks for the General Material Co.

Coxey's $25,000,000,000 Plan.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Jacob S. Coxey, Mayor of Massillon, O., unfolded to the House Banking Committee today a $25,000,000,000 plan for relief. It would authorize states and municipalities to issue non-interest bearing bonds to this total, deposit them with the Treasury for an equal amount of cash and spend the money on all kinds of improvements to give employment. The bonds would be retired at the rate of 4 per cent annually.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—World War veterans, gathered here to demand full payment of the bonus, expelled about 200 avowed Communists from the ex-soldiers' principal encampment last night.

The group ordered from the makeshift village was made up mostly of newcomers from Cleveland, Detroit and New York. The men were singled out as the camp commanders questioned the arrivals who poured in steadily at the rate of about 100 an hour.

A detail of police, aided by ex-soldiers, marched the Communists half a mile or so to a vacant lot, where a strong guard was maintained to prevent disorder.

Some of the men were allowed back in the camp at breakfast time and given the oath of allegiance. They explained they apparently had been made victims of a membership fraud in the organization, having been charged from 10 cents to $1 each to join before leaving their homes in Detroit, Mich., and the larger Ohio cities, on the admission that without league cards they would not be permitted in camp.

was sent for and upon his arrival he pronounced her dead.

"Inspector Walsh, Sergeant Moffatt, Lieut. Keaton, Detective Horn, and Charles A. Peterson (Chief of Police) of Englewood, who was immediately called when it was found Violet Sharp was dead, started an immediate investigation by making a thorough examination of her room."

Poison Found in Room.

"In her room was found a can of cyanide of potassium chloride crystals and a glass, still wet, containing one or more of these crystals."

"The can was marked 'poison.' At about this time the coroner arrived and on the basis of his findings he stated he considered it suicide and he made arrangements with the county physician for an autopsy. No report has been received as yet of the findings of the autopsy."

Scout as Guide to Englewood as soon as the suicide was reported to him and is expected to remain there during the night. The Alpine State police station mentioned in the statement is just around the corner from the Morrow home.

It was established that the girl died shortly before noon. Detective - Lieutenant Nathan Allyn of the Bergen County prosecutor's office said the maid had taken a glass from the butler's pantry, gone to her room on the third floor, and then had drunk the poison. She then went downstairs to the pantry, where she was found dead by a maid.

Allyn estimated that death occurred only a few minutes after the girl reached the pantry.

Detective Inspector Harry Walsh of Jersey City, who has been active in the investigation of the Lindbergh kidnaping, accompanied by several State troopers, arrived at the Morrow home and began a search of the girl's effects for any information concerning her or any notes she might have left.

Both Englewood police and Bergen County authorities will permit State police to have full charge of the investigation, they said, in case there might be some relation with the kidnaping and slaying of the Lindbergh baby.

The body of Miss Sharp was taken to an Englewood undertaking establishment.

Police started an attempt to trace the poison used by the maid. It is said to have been an extremely powerful one, the sale of which is forbidden except on physicians' prescriptions.

Dr. Raphael Glady, Bergen County physician, announced an autopsy would be performed later in the day.

None of the Morrow family could be reached for comment. It is thought that Col. and Mrs. Lindbergh and Mrs. Morrow were at the Morrow home when the body was found.

Maj. Charles A. Schoeffel, assistant to Sup't. Schenck of the State police, said that Miss Sharp had been questioned three times. Once she was taken to the Lindbergh home at Hopewell for examination and twice she was questioned at the Morrow home.

BONUS-SEEKERS DRIVE 200 REDS FROM MAIN CAMP

Veterans March Men to Vacant Lot, Guard Them All Night and Then Permit Some to Return.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—World War veterans, gathered here to demand full payment of the bonus, expelled about 200 avowed Communists from the ex-soldiers' principal encampment last night.

The group ordered from the makeshift village was made up mostly of newcomers from Cleveland, Detroit and New York. The men were singled out as the camp commanders questioned the arrivals who poured in steadily at the rate of about 100 an hour.

A detail of police, aided by ex-soldiers, marched the Communists half a mile or so to a vacant lot, where a strong guard was maintained to prevent disorder.

Some of the men were allowed back in the camp at breakfast time and given the oath of allegiance. They explained they apparently had been made victims of a membership fraud in the organization, having been charged from 10 cents to $1 each to join before leaving their homes in Detroit, Mich., and the larger Ohio cities, on the admission that without league cards they would not be permitted in camp.

Other Communists were placed in a temporary camp far removed from the others until a more permanent camp can be found.

The steady influx has swelled the bonus delegations enormously, greatly adding to alarm over the camp conditions which the city health officer, Dr. William C. Fowler, yesterday declared frightful.

New supplies, however, arrived to ward off danger of starvation as well as disease. Several tons of food raised by a Hoboken Italian club arrived early this morning and was delivered to the camp officers.

Fearing an outbreak of contagious disease, district officials spoke of quarantine, redoubled their efforts to have the various states discourage other marchers and sought arrangements to distribute the men at some of the old forts and military posts which surround the capital.

The veterans yesterday, through Father James R. Cox of Pittsburgh and a committee, left petitions for payment of the bonus with President Hoover, Vice-President Curtis and Speaker Garner.

Curtis was the only one of the three to see them, but their plea was read in both chambers of Congress and was inserted in today's Congressional Record.

The House vote on the Palmer bill to pay the bonus will come up Monday.

Representative Rainey, House Democratic leader, today blocked an effort to obtain an immediate vote on the Palmer bill. Just after the House met, Representative Andrews (Rep.), New York, asked for unanimous consent for consideration of the measure. The Illinois Democrat objected.

Representative Connery (Dem.), Massachusetts, told newspapermen that James K. McInerney, vice-chairman of the Red Cross, had advised him that if any local charity made the request Government wheat would be provided for feeding the veterans here.

It was established that the girl died shortly before noon. Detective - Lieutenant Nathan Allyn of the Bergen County prosecutor's office said the maid had taken a glass from the butler's pantry, gone to her room on the third floor, and then had drunk the poison. She then went downstairs to the pantry, where she was found dead by a maid.

THREE KIDNAP TREASURER, ROB COUNTY SAFE OF $5300

Official Taken From Home and Forced to Open Depository in Rock Island (Ill.) Courthouse.

By the Associated Press.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., June 10.—Three robbers seized E. Clifford Hall, Rock Island County Treasurer, at his home in Moline at 2:30 a. m. today, and forced him to go to the courthouse and open the safe, from which they took $5318. Several thousand dollars in currency was overlooked.

The robbers left a guard at the Hall residence to restrain his wife and brother, Elmore E. Hall, while the robbery was taking place. The Treasurer was returned to his home shortly after 3 a. m., where the robbers bound him and his wife and brother and escaped in an automobile. The brother freed himself and took up the alarm.

The stolen money included yesterday's tax receipts and cash on hand for the business of the office. The safe combination had been changed, Hall said, and he did not know the sequence, but the robbers forced him to look up the new combination and open the safe. They kept Hall away from the counter desk, which is equipped with alarm signal and no lights were permitted.

Two of the men, Hall said, weighed about six feet tall and weighed about 180 pounds. The third was about 5 feet 9 inches tall. All were well dressed.

U. S. RETAIL GROCERS RE-ELECT OFFICERS, ADJOURN

Awards to State Associations Announced at State Convention Here.

The National Association of Retail Grocers closed its thirty-fifth annual convention yesterday at Hotel Jefferson, and decided to meet next year in Atlantic City.

Officers were re-elected. They are J. Walter Tye, Sacramento, Cal., president; H. C. Petersen, East Chicago, Ind., vice president; and E. A. Bartel, Council Bluffs, Ia., treasurer. D. A. Affleck, Salt Lake City, Utah, was re-elected a director for a three-year term.

The California Retail Grocers' and Merchants' Association won an award for the most constructive state association accomplishments during the last year. The Maryland association was first among state organizations in membership increase, with Indiana second. The Food Distributors' Association of Illinois received the largest percentage gain in membership, with 46 per cent.

Resolutions were adopted opposing combination sales and pledging co-operation to the trade in supplying information regarding "the evils of syndicate produce control."

The executive board of the association was entertained at dinner last night by Anheuser-Busch, Inc., at Grant's Farm prior to its annual meeting at the Continental Life insurance building.

BRITISH PIG IRON TARIFF RISE

New Duty $3 1-3 Per Cent; Other Changes in Levies.

LONDON, June 10.—An additional tariff duty of 23 1-3 per cent ad valorem was ordered by the Treasury on pig iron today, following a recommendation of the import duties advisory committee, to aid the British iron and steel industry.

The new duty which raises the total to 33 1-3 per cent, applies to pig iron, other than pig iron smelted with charcoal, to castings weighing less than 112 pounds, and to spring steel. At the same time an order was issued reducing to 10 per cent from 33 1-3 per cent the duty on wrought iron bars produced by puddling with charcoal from pig iron smelted wholly with charcoal, and on rolled strip over 10 inches wide in coils weighing more than 336 pounds.

"Time is the essence of this case," Wagner declared. "I have been on the bench and I know that lawyers can become so involved with legalistic phrases as to forget the real issues involved."

Senator Borah of Idaho declared that he believed that the appointment of loans should be regulated by the needs in various states rather than by population as stipulated in the bill. Wagner, supported by Robinson, replied that such a standard would necessitate the creation of a central board in Washington which would have to make its own investigations.

Spread of the Distress. "With the widespread distress," said Wagner, "apportionment by population is as fair a method as could be desired. If conditions get worse, we may have to authorize more loans when we reconvene in December. I think we can accept the word of the Governors."

Robinson observed that changes are constantly occurring in the unemployment situation. "If Congress," said the Democratic leader, "attempted to regulate the loans by need rather than population, we would find that the census of unemployment, our latest information, would be wholly unreliable."

Senator Walsh of Montana pointed out to Borah that the unemployment statistics related almost entirely to the number of industrial workers out of jobs. He said that farmers in need would not get adequate relief if the Government's unemployment figures of Michigan disclosed that, when the committee considered the Wagner bill, some Senators had predicted that 40 states would not apply for the federal loans. Wagner replied that he had not heard of a State that was not apprehensive about its ability to take care of the needy.

"I believe," he added, "that New York eventually will have to use the benefits of this act."

Action "After Three Years." In a bitter speech, Elmer Johnson, California Progressive, recalled how the President had refused federal relief as a form of "dole."

"Senators," he shouted derisively, "this is a glorious day in the history of the Republic. After three years of delay and opposition, the present administration has recognized that the Government owes something to its suffering citizens."

After three years of hunger and destitution, after three years of the Government taking care of all the banks and railroads, this administration has finally been compelled to bow its head and admit that the Government should do something for hungry men, women and children."

"There was a time when we might have done something to halt this condition, but every obstacle was placed in the way, every suggestion of relief was met with the cry of 'dole.' At last, however, the administration has come to the conclusion—after having successively reached and abandoned 62 other conclusions—that something should be done to feed the hungry and clothe the naked. It is a triumph, I say. We should be congratulated."

"Decline of the Republic." A statement by Senator Reed, old guard Pennsylvania Republican, that "future historians will place the decline of the Republic from the passage of this bill," provoked an astonished reply from Senator Borah.

"I do not believe this bill will be responsible for the fall of the Republic," declared the Idahoan, "nor do I believe the Republic is going to fall. The Anglo-Saxon race has never retreated from democratic government, and it embarked on it to feed hungry men, women and children when they are unable to help themselves will neither undermine their own morale nor turn them against their Government. It will convince them that the Government is entitled to their support."

Farm Relief Bills Approved in Committee—Economy Conference. The relief bill was taken up immediately after the Senate had agreed to a conference report on the $177,000,000 agricultural appropriation bill. As approved by the House, the agricultural bill added $175,000,000, which the Senate increased approximately $2,000,000 in sending the bill to conference.

Two farm relief bills—one for the export debenture and the other containing the debenture, equalization fee and domestic allotment plans—were approved today by the House Agriculture Committee. The vote on the debenture bill, sponsored by Chairman Jones, was 14 to 6. This measure would be mandatory immediately after enactment.

The three-plan bill was introduced by Representative Fulmer (Dem.), South Carolina, at the request of the three national farm organizations—the Farm Bureau Federation, the National Grangers and the National Farmers Union. It was approved 14 to 6.

This bill would add the debenture, the equalization fee and the domestic allotment plan sponsored by the Farmers Union to existing powers of the Farm Board to issue Government securities for the purchase of farm products for export.

Despite the fact that it passed the Senate out from $23,000,000 to some figure between $12,000,000 and $159,000,000, it still is regarded as a vital companion to the new $1,118,500,000 revenue law, in the effort to stabilize Government finances during the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Representative Snell, House Republican leader, said, upon leaving the White House today, that he had informed President Hoover that the Republicans in the House would back the payless furlough provision for Government workers in the conference on the economy bill.

Snell said he felt sure the Republican conferees would agree with conferees from the Senate which adopted the furlough plan in place of a proposed 10 per cent wage cut for Federal employees.

Even though all chances of getting in time for the Republican national convention at Chicago, opening next Tuesday, has gone, Congress is trying for an early adjournment.

For Waterway Control by I. G. C. WASHINGTON, June 10.—(Continued) Waterway commerce would be placed under the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission by two bills introduced yesterday by Representative Arnold (Dem.), Illinois.

Require real estate agents pay a license fee of $25 to $50 a year, depending on the amount of their business.

Amusement tax on a graduated scale ranging from 30 cents on admissions of 30 cents to 50 cents on admissions of $4 or more.

Tobacco Tax to Raise $150,000. The tobacco tax, which would yield $150,000 annually is modeled after a Kansas City ordinance which was repealed in 1928. It had been upheld by the Supreme Court. The Kansas City tax on cigarettes only, and a first package was expected to yield $250,000 a year, but proved an appointment as a revenue measure. It did not become effective until the summer of 1928, and in November of that year the Court decided to declare it unenforceable. Up to that time had produced only $12,000, and revenue was decreasing.

Revenue lamps are proposed the means of collecting the dealers would be required to pay a cent stamp on each 5-cent article, a 3-cent stamp on each 10-cent article, and so on in proportion to larger sales.

The Kansas City ordinance strong opposition from the Tobacco Merchants' Association and the Council for the Association at the time proposed as a compromise $50 annual tax on all dealers dealing in cigarettes.

Other "Revenue Estimates." The merchants' and manufacturers' sales tax is expected to yield $200,000 in new revenue, and bowling alley levy $15,000. No rates have been made for the barber shops or real estate agents. The amusement tax, if passed, might produce about $100,000 a year.

The conference of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment with representatives of the Citizens' Committee was by Comptroller Nolte after he received a wire from Muench asking for instructions.

"The Citizens' Committee," the Board of Estimate are of opinion that St. Louis cannot immediately raise sufficient funds to meet the needs of the city. Therefore it is necessary to accept an aid, probably in the shape of loans, which seem to be proposed by the State Constitution and charter. You are authorized to urge Congress to pass immediate legislation which would enable St. Louis to participate."

Muench had wired that it is desirable that any Federal appropriation, for relief should be administered by Federal authorities and inquired whether he and other St. Louisans were to be authorized to work in that direction. It was to settle this question the meeting was called by Comptroller.

by the respective Governors. In instances where states either failed or were unable to repay the money, it would be deducted from their Federal road grants beginning in 1935, at the rate of one-fifth per year.

The Senate agreed today without a record vote to an amendment by Senator Walsh (Dem.), Montana, to cut the interest rate on the state advances from 5 to 3 per cent.

Originally the bill was merely a section of a major relief measure, which provided in other sections for a $500,000,000 bond issue to finance a vast program of Federal public works, and for the creation of $1,500,000,000 to the capital of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for loans to public and private agencies to finance income-producing construction. Because of President Hoover's "gentle opposition" to features of the latter provision it was decided to divorce the emergency relief provision from the others and present it as a separate measure.

Special Levies on Sales, Tobacco, Barber Shops, Real Estate Agents and Amusements Proposed.

Special tax measures by which it is hoped to raise more than $500,000 for relief, comprising the city's $600,000 pledge in the crisis campaign, they were signed immediately by Mayor Miller.

At the same session the board passed two bills appropriating a total of $300,000 for relief, completing the city's $600,000 pledge in the crisis campaign. They were signed immediately by Mayor Miller.

While the Aldermen were meeting the Board of Estimate and Apportionment was conferring with members of Citizens' Committee on Relief and Employment on the possibility of obtaining relief funds from the Federal Government.

At the conclusion of this conference a telegram was sent to City Counselor Muench in Washington instructing him to urge Congress to pass relief legislation which would enable St. Louis and Missouri to participate.

Muench is in Washington with E. G. Steger, director of the Community Fund, and Arthur C. Meyers of the Comptroller's office.

Special Tax Proposals.

The new tax measures would: Increase the levy on sales of merchants and manufacturers from $1 for each $1000 in sales to $1.50.

Tax sales of tobacco in any form 20 per cent.

Amusement shops $2 for each chair, and recreation establishments $10 for each bowling alley.

Require real estate agents to pay a license fee of $25 to $100 a year, depending on the amount of their business.

Tax assessments on a graduated scale ranging from 1 cent on admissions of 20 cents to 20 cents on admissions of $4 or more.

Tobacco Tax to Raise $500,000.

The tobacco tax, estimated to yield $150,000 annually is modeled after a Kansas City ordinance which was repealed in 1925, after a had been upheld by the Supreme Court.

The Kansas City tax was on cigarettes only, and when first passed was expected to yield $250,000 a year, but proved a disappointment as a revenue measure.

It did not become effective until the summer of 1925, and late in November of that year the City Council decided to repeal it as unenforceable.

Up to that time it had produced only $12,000, and the revenue was decreasing monthly.

Revenue camps are proposed as a means of collecting the tax. Dealers would be required to place a stamp on each 5-cent article, a 1-cent stamp on each 15-cent article, and so in proportion for larger sales.

The Kansas City ordinance met strong opposition from the Tobacco Merchants' association of America and the association of American Cigarette Manufacturers.

At one time proposed as a compromise a $50 annual tax on all dealers handling cigarettes.

Other Revenue Estimates.

The manufacturers' sales tax is expected to provide $200,000 in new revenue, and the so-called alley levy $10,000. No estimates have been made of what might be realized from the tax on barber shops or real estate agents.

The amusement tax, it is expected, might produce about $100,000 a year.

The conference of the Board of Estimate with representatives of the Citizens' Committee was called by City Controller Nolte after he had received a wire from Muench asking for instructions.

"The Citizens' Committee and the Board of Estimate are of the opinion that St. Louis cannot immediately raise sufficient funds," was the message telegraphed to Muench after the meeting. "Therefore it is necessary to accept Federal aid, probably in the shape of loans, which seem to be prohibited by the State Constitution and city charter. You are authorized to urge Congress to pass immediate legislation which would enable St. Louis to participate."

Muench had wired that it seemed desirable that any Federal appropriation, for relief should be administered by Federal authorities, and inquired whether he and the other St. Louisans were to be authorized to work in that direction. It was to settle this question that the meeting was called by the Controller.

MUST PAY $578,378 U. S. TAX ON CHICAGO 'EXPERT FEES'

Realty Man Hired by Mayor Thompson Loses Court Case By Default.

CHICAGO, June 10.—Edward C. Waller Jr., a real estate expert under former Mayor William Hale Thompson, lost by default yesterday a $578,378 verdict to the United States Government for income taxes which he allegedly failed to pay on $583,325 he received from the city in 1920 and 1921.

William J. Dulker, Assistant United States District Attorney, said the Government would move to seize Waller's one-tenth share of his father's $6,000,000 estate.

Whether the Government would realize anything from the estate, however, is problematical inasmuch as it was said in divorce proceedings recently that his share already was covered with liens and claims.

The government's income tax case was based largely on testimony and figures brought out in Cook County Circuit Court in a suit instituted by the Chicago Tribune to force Thompson and his real estate experts to refund "expert fees" paid them by the city. A $2,245,000 verdict against the defendants was overruled by the State Supreme Court.

The $578,378 verdict included unpaid taxes, penalties and interest.

BY DEPARTMENT STORES IN MAY

Comparison by Reserve Board Is With Reports for Same Month Last Year.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The Federal Reserve Board reported a value of department store sales in May was 24 per cent smaller than for the same period a year ago.

The figures were based on 510 reporting stores in 218 cities of the 12 Federal Reserve districts.

A decline from April to May was reported also by the board. This, it said, was contrary to the usual seasonal movement.

The board's index, which makes allowance for number of business days and for seasonal changes, was 74 in May on the basis of the 1923 average of 100, compared with 80 in April and 72 in March.

The Fifth Federal Reserve District of Richmond made the best comparative showing, its decrease from last year being only 18 per cent. This was due, presumably, to the expenditures by Government employees in Washington, D. C., a part of the Fifth District, whose purchasing power has not been decreased.

The Twelfth District, centralized in Dallas, made the poorest showing, its sales dropping 22 per cent in the year.

ARRESTS FOR USING MACHINES

BADAJOS, Spain, June 10.—Twenty farmers were ordered arrested by the Governor today for continuing to use harvesting machines despite orders that hand labor be used to relieve unemployment.

BANKING INSTITUTE'S OFFICERS
 Frank N. Hall, St. Louis, to head National Group.
 By the Associated Press.
 LOS ANGELES, June 10.—A business session today was to end the thirtieth annual convention of the American Institute of Banking.

 Frank N. Hall of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, and Albert D. Füllcher of Milwaukee, as unopposed nominees, become president and vice president, respectively, of the institute for the ensuing year. Results of the convention held last night to determine the four members to be elected to the Executive Council were to be announced today.

25 PCT. REDUCTION IN PUBLIC SCHOOL FUNDS DISCUSSED

Decrease of About 17 Pct.
 in Income Contemplated by Board of Education Finance Committee.

A tentative budget for the public schools in the coming fiscal year, being considered by the Finance Committee of the Board of Education, fixes expenditures at 25.7 per cent less than appropriations for the year now closing.
 It contemplates a reduction of 17.3 per cent in the income from taxes and other sources.

The committee will recommend a final budget for adoption at the July meeting of the board. The school fiscal year starts July 1.
 For some years the board has had few difficult problems in fitting its expenditures to its revenue, but this year the task has been hard.

Expenditures for the new year are calculated in the tentative budget at $10,786,650, compared with $14,520,398 appropriated in the year now ending. Receipts for the coming year are estimated at $10,487,1-290, compared with $13,092,000 for the current year. Thus expenditures would be trimmed $3,133,- 747 and the board is allowing for a reduction of $2,364,710 in revenue.

Assessments Already Cut.
 Ben Weldie, chairman of the Finance Committee, declared the estimates of tax receipts were "very conservative." The principal reason for lowered tax income is the 10 per cent decrease in the real estate assessment here ordered several months ago by the State Board of Equalization. The board also is allowing for a decline of 25 per cent in the yield of the merchants' and manufacturers' tax.
 A year ago, the board started the current fiscal year with a cash surplus of $3,398,227. It figures on a surplus of $2,176,057 at the end of this month and $1,686,271 on June 30, 1932. This is about the minimum required to carry on until tax receipts come in volume, in December. Under the law, the board must set aside for reserve 5 per cent of the estimated receipts for the coming year, or $541,834.

Comparative appropriations by departments are:
 Instruction, proposed for coming year, $8,175,011; decrease of $1,- 261,329 under current year; estimated unexpended balance to be saved this year, $281,266. Building, proposed, $1,481,150; decrease of $2,064,418 more than half, unexpended balance, $282,621. Supply, proposed, $221,350; decrease of $269,199; unexpended balance, $94,- 650, which may be increased to $250,000. Finance, proposed, $174,- 258; decrease of $138,848; unexpended balance, $60,184. Auditing, proposed, $27,119; book increase of $1046. Attorney, proposed, $7761; decrease of $438.

$959,129 Saving in Pay.
 The "voluntary" sacrifice of 20 days' pay in the next year by all officials and employees of the schools is calculated to save $959,129, of which $900,739 will be in the instruction department, mostly among teachers, and $58,389 in the building department, mostly among custodians and matrons.

However, the instruction department budget contemplates a total saving of $1,201,625 in salaries. The additional saving will be realized through elimination of summer schools, reduction in number of evening school faculties and playground supervisors, and unfilled vacancies. There will be a slight increase in the number of pupils for each teacher. Similarly, the building department looks for a total saving of $98,274 in salaries.
 Among the larger decreases in the tentative budget, compared with the year now ending, will be these savings:

Construction of school buildings, $1,013,316. Only $17,411 will be spent.

Building maintenance, $497,562.
 Only $222,872 to be provided.

Instructional expense, $360,000.
 Appropriation to be $132,750. This item relates to school room supplies, the stationery that will be $10,000 instead of $115,000 and that for text-books $40,000 instead of $150,000.

Improvements and fixed equipment, $308,136. Only $7500 will be spent.

Maintenance of furniture, equipment and raw material stock, $175,- 000. Only $35,000 will be spent.

Movable equipment, $95,000. Only $53,000 will be spent.

School sites, $50,712. No appropriation for sites is proposed.

The tentative budget is subject to revision by the Finance Committee and the board, but at present little change in the totals is anticipated. Last January the income and expenditures for the coming fiscal year each had been figured about $2,000,000 higher than now. The committee has been busy since then pruning the budget.

RALPH SEWER TAX INJUNCTIONS VOIDED

Supreme Court Restrains County Circuit Judges From Halting Collections.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, June 10.—The Missouri Supreme Court on banc today permanently restrained St. Louis County Circuit Court from taking any further action in injunction suits against the St. Louis County sewer districts formed under the Ralph sewer law. The suits were designed to prevent the districts from levying and collecting sewer taxes. The court ruled the suits were not properly instituted.

The decision today, making absolute a preliminary rule of prohibition issued several months ago, does not deal with the merits of the repeal of the Ralph sewer law by the 1931 Legislature, or the merits of the taxes the district supervisors proposed to collect to pay preliminary expenses.

The suits were filed last January by Prosecuting Attorney Castien of St. Louis County, against the St. Ferdinand, Overland, Central, Lemay Ferry and Wellston sewer districts. The Circuit Court issued a temporary injunction in each instance, restraining the district supervisors and the County Collector from taking any steps to collect the taxes. The supervisors then applied to the Supreme Court for a writ of prohibition.

In support of the application it was contended the Prosecuting Attorney was not authorized to institute the suits in the name of the State and that the Circuit Court had no authority to issue the temporary injunctions without requiring an indemnifying bond to protect the districts during the litigation.

Judge Berryman Henwood, who wrote the opinion, sustained this contention, holding the suits did not fall within the class that could be brought in behalf of the State. He ruled the temporary restraining orders, issued without requiring an indemnifying bond, therefore were void. All of the other Judges of Court on banc concurred in the ruling.

Prosecuting Attorney Castien withheld comment on the decision until he could obtain and read a copy of it. "I want to study the opinion, then decide what may be best to do," he said. The preliminary taxes involved were for engineering plans and other expenses in the sewer districts. No construction was started.

$200,000 IN SECURITIES VANISH FROM CLERK'S DESK

Man Checking Them in Philadelphia Bank Gone Briefly to Answer Phone Call.

By the Associated Press. PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—About $200,000 in securities that had been delivered a few minutes before, disappeared today from the administrative offices of the Girard Trust Co., Broad and Chestnut streets.

The securities had been delivered by the Pennsylvania Co. for insurance on lives and for annuities. Erwin A. Fiero, a clerk, was checking them when a telephone on a nearby desk rang. Answering it, he said, an excited voice asked him to go to the business department at once and get $50,000 in bonds left on a counter there before somebody picked them up. Hurrying over to the place designated, Fiero failed to find any bonds and when he returned to his desk the securities he was checking were gone.

U. S. TO LOOK INTO 'RARE DRUG' SUIT FOR INSURANCE

Federal Attorney's Aid Says
Brandy Corporation's $125,000 Claim Will Be Investigated.

JUDGE CAUSTIC ON TESTIMONY GIVEN

Directed Jury to Give Verdict Against Firm in Case at Bar, and Dismissed 11 Others.

An investigation of the suit of the Brandy Corporation, a chemical concern, to collect $125,000 on alleged fire losses, will be made by Department of Justice agents, with a view to presenting evidence to the Federal grand jury now in session, according to an announcement today by C. J. Stettin, Assistant United States Attorney.

Stettin and his chief, United States Attorney Bremer, listened to testimony of witnesses for the corporation in Federal Judge Farris' court yesterday morning.

The trial of a suit against the National Security Fire Insurance Co., one of 12 defendants, ended abruptly yesterday afternoon in a directed verdict for the defendant. Suits against the 11 other companies were dismissed for want of prosecution, with leave to reinstate.

Attorneys back to withdraw. The directed verdict followed a request of Gustave Stamm and Harry A. Frank, attorneys for M. L. Stewart, assignee of the chemical company, to withdraw as counsel. Judge Farris held the request in abeyance until the jury had complied with his instruction.

Judge Farris pointed out to the jury that the plaintiffs, who had closed their case, had failed to present evidence of the market value of $125,000 worth of autonin, a "rare drug" supposedly lost in a fire at the company laboratories, 804 North Levee street, March 9, 1930. He also said that under the insurance contract, refusal of officers of the company to give information on the fire required by the underwriters would constitute breach of contract. Considerable evidence to that effect had been produced on cross-examination.

Tells of Buying Drug. The principal witnesses were Arthur G. Whitaker, former chemical engineer and general manager of the Brandy Corporation, and Jack G. Edwards, its president.

Whitaker told of a trip to Montreal, Canada, where he bought the autonin from a man named Dobrynski, who delivered it to his home, 2158 Watson road, by truck. Whitaker said he made payment with $70,000, his life savings, which he said he kept in a steel chest in an attic at his home.

He testified, however, that he could not recall whether Dobrynski's trucks had Canadian licenses or those of one of the states, that he had no sales records of the transaction by which he, as the Cosmetics Sales & Importing Co., sold the autonin to the Brandy Corporation at a profit. He added that a cashier's check he gave in part payment for the transaction was in another person's name and therefore he could not recall what bank had issued it.

"You're pretty nervous about being questioned, aren't you?" William E. Hoggett, attorney for the insurance company, asked. "I'm always nervous," Whitaker answered.

Large Claims for "Wee-Evil." Whitaker related that the autonin, in several large cartons, was kept in a vault at his home and that he afterward stored it in two leads in his automobile in the Brandy Corporation office, where serial numbers of the packages were checked and the drug stored in a vault before the company prepared to use it in the manufacture of "Wee-Evil," which was to be marketed as an emulsifier of boll weevil in cotton.

The autonin arrived at the office March 3 and 4, 1930, the insurance was written March 5 under a 15-day binder policy, and Whitaker himself sat up three nights with a shotgun guarding the drug at the office, according to his testimony. Former employees of the concern testified to seeing the cartons and some of the autonin at the time it was mixed in "Wee-Evil."

Whitaker, who said "Wee-Evil" was his invention, said it was so powerful that a pound mixed in 50 gallons of water was sufficient to treat 20 bushels of cottonseed. Plants which grew from the cottonseed, he claimed, would provide a fatal diet for foraging boll-weevils.

When Hoggett showed him Department of Agriculture bulletins warning farmers against buying such preparations, which were termed worthless, Whitaker said, "Those fellows at the Department of Agriculture are in a rut. They don't do a lot of good."

Judge Farris, in his remarks to the jury said of Whitaker's testimony: "I don't think a person who was within hearing of the witness believed a word he said. I have never heard in a courtroom anything like the testimony from this witness stand of the effect that 'Wee-Evil' would have on the appetite of a boll-weevil. I don't think a man who wants to keep out of the pestiferous world dare to ship in interstate commerce a single pound of a preparation with such claims made for it."

Judge Farris was born and reared on a cotton plantation in southeastern Missouri and chemistry is one of his hobbies.

Edwards, in his testimony, said he left all details of financial management of the company to Whitaker and could not recall what two manufactured products of the company, other than "Wee-Evil," were for or what they contained.

He said the company was preparing to sell $450,000 worth of "Wee-Evil" back to Whitaker's Cosmetics Sales & Importing Co., whose agents had contracts with Southern plants for $600,000 worth of the product. The fire, in completely destroying the equipment and chemicals, put an end to the business, according to Edwards.

Other witnesses testified to seeing samples of the supposed autonin and pronounced it genuine.

KILLED NEW YOUNG HUSBAND AND HIS BROTHER WITH POISON

By the Associated Press.
CARROLLTON, Wis., June 30.—Anna Bowers, 36 years old, and her brother, Raynor, 3, died June 3 after eating lunch prepared by Anna's wife, who is 41. An analysis showed the food contained poison and she was arrested. She has confessed.

Sheriff Arrington quoted her today as saying she and her husband quarreled violently because he wanted her eldest daughter by a previous marriage, Winona Smith, to marry Raynor. Mrs. Bowers is the mother of nine children by her first husband.

INJURED MAKING MOUTH BALLS

Nathan Thomas, 34 years old, was manufacturing mouth balls on a stove at his rooming house, 4018A McPherson avenue, yesterday, when the mixture exploded, setting fire to the house and burning Thomas on the face and hands. He is at City Hospital in serious condition. Damage to the building and furnishings was $2300.

$100,000 Spent To Perfect This Ideal Way to Kill All Flies and Mosquitoes

Fly-Tox was developed at Mellon Institute of Industrial Research by Rex Research Fellowship. Ten years have been spent in perfecting it, and more than $100,000.

It is based on extracts from flowers of Japan, which insects cannot tolerate. Used rightly, Fly-Tox kills these pests at a small cost—1 or 2 cents per room.

no stains. Accept nothing less effective when the safety of your home is at stake. Sold in a million stores the world over.

FLY-TOX ONLY

It releases into your room a cloud of all-pervading mist. Every fly or mosquito dies at its touch. Yet no harm to people, no offense.

PLEADS GUILTY IN AUTO DEATH 3 DAYS AFTER GRAUATION

Austin Ardolina, Former Dental Student, Is Fined $500 for Manslaughter.

Austin Ardolina, 4520 Forest Park avenue, graduated Tuesday from St. Louis University Dental School, pleaded guilty of manslaughter in Circuit Judge Ousling's court today in connection with an automobile death, and was fined $500.

Harry V. Black, 5043 Chippewa street, was killed last Nov. 9 when his automobile was struck at Grand boulevard and Olive street by a rented car driven by Ardolina. It was said at the Circuit Attorney's office that evidence had been found that Ardolina, contrary to first reports, made a boulevard stop before the accident.

Eiffel Tower Earns $114,724.
PARIS, June 10.—The Eiffel Tower earned net profits of $114,724 in 1931 from gross receipts of $278,801, of which $12,000 came from an illuminated advertisement of a widely-known automobile.

SAYS CAPITALISM IN U. S. IS DOOMED TO FAILURE

Col. Henry W. Anderson Also Calls Unsound Socialism As Practiced by Russia.

CHICAGO, June 10.—Col. Henry W. Anderson of Virginia, a member of the Wickersham Commission and a delegate to the Republican national convention, today predicted that extreme Socialism, as exemplified by Russia, and extreme capitalism, as he said was practiced in the United States, were both doomed to failure.

The Virginia lawyer, speaking before Chicago's Union League Club, the membership of which includes many of the city's foremost industrialists, said "both systems are unsound in principle and unjust in operation."

"The Russian experiment," he said, "now represents the extreme of Socialism, in that it undertakes to socialize both natural wealth in its natural state and wealth created or produced by the energies or service of man."

"The United States represents the other extreme of capitalism, the basis of which is the absolute ownership of both kinds of property and the operation of which finds expression in the anti-social theory of competitive economic effort."

ALFONSO TO RETURN TO SPAIN ONLY IF PEOPLE WANT HIM
Madrid Paper Says Ex-King Has Rejected Proposal for Military Invasion.

By the Associated Press.
MADRID, June 10.—The newspaper El Heraldillo says former King Alfonso XIII has rejected a proposal of various military figures to invade Spain, saying he would only return by a vote of the people. The military circles involved are not named, but the newspaper counsels the Government to beware of granting high commands to monarchists.

Former King Alfonso has been in exile in France since the monarchy was overthrown last year. A dispatch from Toulouse, France, Wednesday night said numerous Spanish notables were reported to have met at Blagnac, near Toulouse, to discuss a campaign for restoration of the monarchy in Spain.

THREE KILLED IN TRUCK CRASH
Vehicle Wrecks Three Buildings at Johnstown, Pa.

By the Associated Press.
JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 10.—Three men were killed today when a truck plunged down Frankstown Hill at terrific speed and wrecked three buildings. The dead: Harry Kessler, 57 years old, of Philadelphia; Norman Ballard, 21, Negro of Philadelphia, and Mike Hudak, 63, of Johnstown.

The wildly careening vehicle splintered a meat market and barber shop and came to rest in flames within the wall of a dwelling. Five persons were hurt, none of them critically. Kessler was the owner and Ballard the driver of the truck. Hudak was walking along the street. He was picked up by the truck and hurled with it into the buildings.

ANOTHER BATTLE IN HONDURAS
Rebels Attack Federals, Who Are Preparing Counter Drive.

By the Associated Press.
GUATEMALA CITY, June 10.—Further revolutionary outbreaks in Honduras were reported in dispatches received here today. The dispatches said rebel troops under Filiberto Diaz Zelaya, leader of the Nationalist party, attacked Federal forces in the Department of Copan. The Federals were driven back, the report said, and were massing for a concentrated drive to retake the territory near the place where more than 60 were reported killed in battle Tuesday.

FEDERAL BUILDING AWARD
Detroit Company Gets Contract for Work at Jefferson City.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The Treasury Department yesterday announced the award of a contract for a Federal building at Jefferson City, Mo., to the A. W. Kutsche Co. of Detroit, Mich., on its bid of $249,000.

The company was allotted 450 days from notice to complete the work.

Five New State Patrolmen.
By the Associated Press.
JEFFERSON CITY, June 10.—Appointment of five new patrolmen was announced today by Col. Ellis, superintendent of the State highway patrol. One of the new appointees is Edward C. Brown, 24 years old, Republican, St. Louis, field representative of an acceptance corporation. Appointment of the additional men brings the total personnel to 60, including the superintendent. They were placed on the force because the patrol has been able to operate on much less money than was expected.

Patterson to Miss Convention.
By the Associated Press.
CARTHAGE, Mo., June 10.—Mrs. Harrison C. Rogers of Carthage received a request yesterday from Senator Roscoe Patterson, one of Missouri's delegates-at-large to the Republican national convention in Chicago, to attend in his place. Mrs. Rogers was elected an alternate. Senator Patterson said his legislative duties prevent him from attending.

Suspended Dry Agents Reinstated.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 10.—Amos W. W. Woodcock, national director of prohibition, today announced that John B. Madden and Bruce Armstrong, suspended special agents of the Western district of Kansas, had been restored to good standing so they might have an unimpaired status as witnesses in prohibition cases in the coming session of the grand jury.

NEW OFFER ON BONDS OF MARK TWAIN HOTEL

Holders Get Chance to Deposit Securities With Committee but Refuse.

Counsel for the Bondholders' Protective Committee of Straus Bros. Investment Co., offered at the conclusion of a hearing before Circuit Judge Hall yesterday to permit holders of bonds on the Mark Twain Hotel to deposit their securities with the committee and participate in the proposed reorganization.

Bondholders who did not join the committee, objecting to the plan of reorganization, are seeking to have the Court set aside sale of the property at foreclosure. It was bid in by the committee for $35,000, and non-depositing bondholders would receive about 3 cents on the dollar for their bonds.

James E. Carroll, attorney for the protesting bondholders, said they were not interested in the offer made by Jacob Chasoff, counsel for the committee. Judge Hall took under advisement the motion to set aside the sale.

Carroll had argued the true value of the property at Eighth and Pine streets was about $500,000, and that the bid at the foreclosure sale had been made purposely low to freeze out non-depositing bondholders. He called as witnesses Henry R. Weisels, real estate dealer, who said the ground was worth $310,000, and N. O. Vegely, real estate specialist for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., who said it would cost from $555,000 to $600,000 to construct the building at present prices.

Alfred Fairbank, vice president of Boatmen's National Bank and a member of the Straus Bros. protective committee, said about 90 per cent of the bond holders had deposited their bonds with the committee and that he knew of none who had withdrawn them after being informed of the reorganization plan. Fairbank was not asked what it would have cost bond holders to withdraw. He denied that the bid had been made purposely low, and said Chasoff had been instructed to use his best judgment in making it.

Boyle G. Clark, of counsel for the committee, said it bought the property subject to about $200,000 in claims. These included $101,000 in mechanics' liens, and $48,000 in taxes, the rest being court costs and various fees, Clark said.

The committee plans to lease the hotel for 20 years to an operating company.

ATTORNEY SENTENCED TO JAIL FOR SUBORNATION OF PERJURY

Alpheus Gustin of Harrisburg, convicted of hiring witnesses to swear falsely.

Alpheus Gustin, an attorney, of Harrisburg, Ill., who was found guilty of subornation of perjury by Federal Judge Wham at Cairo recently after waiting trial by jury, was sentenced to six months in jail by Judge Wham at East St. Louis yesterday. He will be sent to St. Louis County jail at Harrisburg.

Judge Wham overruled Gustin's motion for a new trial on the ground he had been "framed" by two witnesses who said he had persuaded them to testify falsely for him during his trial last fall on charges of violating the prohibition law. They said he promised to pay them $50 each for their testimony.

Gustin's trial on the liquor charge resulted in a jury disagreement. One of the witnesses, Louis Overstreet of Harrisburg, was indicted for perjury.

INDICTED FOR MURDER IN RESTAURANT KILLING

George Lemmons, unemployed switchman, accused of shooting Walter J. Oberbeck.

A first-degree murder indictment was returned by the grand jury yesterday against George Lemmons, unemployed railroad switchman who shot and killed Walter J. Oberbeck, 43 Larimore road, St. Louis County, in a restaurant at 2027 Clark avenue, May 24.

Oberbeck, who was operating the restaurant as executor of the estate of his brother-in-law, was eating dinner with his wife when Lemmons shot him. Police found Lemmons in a nearby vacant lot. He told them that Oberbeck had threatened to kill him and had rushed at him with an ice pick. This account was denied by Mrs. Oberbeck and the restaurant porter, both of whom said Lemmons fired without warning.

OFFICERS ACCUSED OF MURDER OF PRISONER IN ROAD CAMP

Florida Pair Held After Youth Is Found Strangled to Death in "Sweet Box."

By the Associated Press. JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 10.—Two prison camp officers were held here today on first degree murder charges in the death of Charles Malfret, 19-year-old prisoner, found strangled in a "sweet box."

Corener's inquest placed responsibility on Capt. C. W. Courson, in charge of a road camp near Sunbeam, and S. M. Higginbotham, a guard. The two men were ordered held without bond.

Witnesses testified Malfret, whose home was Westfield, N. J., gnawed his way out of a barrel where he had been placed for refusal to work and then was confined in the sweet box, unable to sit or lie down, with his feet in stocks and a chain about his neck. Officers at the camp said Malfret deliberately swung his feet off the ground to hang himself, but County Detective W. H. Gasque said he believed the youth was too fatigued to stand and strangled when he involuntarily sagged on the chain.

BOYD-RICHARDSON—OLIVE AT SIXTH

VERDICT OF SUICIDE IN JEWELER'S DEATH

Aubrey C. Lindsley Took Poison After Being Accused in Fake Holdup.

A coroner's verdict of suicide was returned today in the death of Aubrey C. Lindsley, jeweler in the Arcade building, who took poison yesterday after several days questioning by police and insurance adjusters concerning his report that he was bound and robbed of $48,000 in jewelry and diamonds May 7.

Last Tuesday Lindsley signed a legal statement releasing the Home Fire & Marine Insurance Co. of San Francisco, from any liability as a result of his report of the holdup. Chief of Detectives Kasper announced after the suicide that police had determined Lindsley made two previous efforts to arrange holdups for insurance.

Just before his suicide, Lindsley had been conversing with Rudolph Schneider, lawyer who represented him during the police questioning. Schneider walked into an outer room of Lindsley's fifth floor suite of offices and announced it was time for lunch. Lindsley followed, saying he wanted a drink before lunch, and with a glass in his hand, walked to a fountain in the hall. He returned through another door, reached his inner office and collapsed.

Office associates told police they had a quantity of cyanide of potassium, a deadly poison jewelers use for tarnish removal, yesterday morning, because they were afraid Lindsley might use it. After his death they found their cache undisturbed, but an autopsy showed Lindsley had died of cyanide poisoning.

On the jeweler's desk, police found an unsigned note in Lindsley's handwriting which stated, "Dearest, it was done for you." Lindsley, who lived at 8788 Watman avenue, is survived by his widow and a son. He was 49 years old and was active in Boy Scout affairs.

$1,000,000 SUIT AGAINST PUBLISHING FIRM ON TRIAL

Von Hoffmann Press Defendant in Action Over Article in Magazine It Printed.

The $1,000,000 damage suit of Harry Jones of Webster Groves, former secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge, Structural and Ornamental Ironworkers, against the Von Hoffmann Press is on trial before a jury in Circuit Judge Hoffmeister's court. The action is based on statements contained in a report of P. J. Morrin, president of the union, which was published by the Bridge-men's Magazine, a trade paper.

An answer filed by Von Hoffmann Press denies liability in the matter, setting forth that the concern printed the magazine under contract, and did not compose or create any article therein, but published the contents according to copy. It is further contended by defense the statements to which plaintiff objects were embodied in the official report of the international president as made at the association's convention in 1928.

Jones sues for $100,000 actual and a like amount as punitive damages.

TRANSFER MEN'S WAGE DEAL

New Agreement Being Negotiated by Owners and Union.

Negotiations for a new wage and working agreement are being conducted by officers of Transfer Drivers' Local Union 600, with a membership of 1200, and representatives of the Team and Truck Owners' Association.

The present agreement, providing for weekly wages varying from $28 to $42, depending on the capacity of the vehicle operated, expires next Friday. It is understood that employers have suggested a wage adjustment in keeping with reductions in other industries. A union representative said today that an amicable settlement is expected.

FIVE OF 2000 CLAIMANTS GET PART OF WENDEL FORTUNE

Principal Legatee Under $30,000, 000 Will Agrees on Small Settlements.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The New York Times says the five principal legatees under the $30,000,000 will of the late Miss Ella V. von E. Wendel have settled with five of the eight outstanding claimants.

The amount of the settlements is understood not to be large. The five claimants are Vaughn Barney, Leah Barney, Mrs. Walter Waite and Mrs. W. A. Irwin, Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Effie Bush, Alameda, Cal. They were described as fifth-degree kin.

Miss Wendel was a member of a family which built a $100,000,000 fortune on Manhattan real estate. About 2000 claimants have appeared.

IN CAMPAIGN TO KEEP U. S. OUT OF BUSINESS

Shannon (Dem.) Missouri Thinks Fear of Reprisal Hinders Inquiry.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Belief that fear of reprisals was hampering the special House committee in its investigation of Government competition with private business was expressed today by Representative Shannon (Dem.), Missouri, chairman of the group. He made the statement as the committee continued its hearings with testimony by Alfred P. Thon, Jr., representing the Association of Railway Executives; Representative La Guardia (Rep.), New York, and Bert Thompson, editor of the Lawton (Ok.) News Review. Thompson was reticent about describing his efforts to have Secretary of War Hurley close its "gigantic department store" at Fort Sill, four miles from Lawton. When committee members pressed him for answers, Shannon interposed: "The merchants are afraid of a boycott. They're afraid of a war within a war."

NEW ILLINOIS COMMANDER OF G. A. R. IS 93 YEARS OLD

JOLIET, Ill., June 10.—The Illinois department of the Grand Army of the Republic elected a 93-year-old veteran as its new commander. He is H. C. First, a member of Post No. 143, Rock Island, Ill., and is the successor of James H. Campbell of Chicago. William O'Callahan, 91, Joliet, was elected senior vice commander. The balloting for junior vice commander resulted in a tie between George A. Robinson, Belvidere, and William N. Hode of Decatur. John E. Andrews of Quincy was elected trustee, and the Rev. J. H. Crowder of Bethany was re-elected chaplain. The new officers were installed today. The annual parade of the campment was held this morning.

GETS PENITENTIARY SENTENCE FOR THIRD DRY LAW VIOLATION

Murphyboro (Ill.) Man Pleads Guilty; Eldorado Druggist Fined. Riley Bradley, 55 years old, of Murphyboro, Ill., was sentenced to a year and a day in Leavenworth penitentiary yesterday at East St. Louis by Federal Judge Wham when he pleaded guilty of a third offense of liquor violation. Bradley, charged with possession and sale of liquor and maintenance of a public nuisance, pleaded for leniency because of a contagious eye disease from which he is suffering. In imposing the penitentiary sentence Judge Wham assured Bradley he would get excellent medical attention at Leavenworth. For having whiskey and gin in excess of the legal limit for prescriptions Andrew Macklin, 59, a druggist of Eldorado, Ill., was fined $100 by Judge Wham. Macklin's attorney described him as a leading citizen of Eldorado and the leading druggist of his district. Macklin said the liquor was for his personal use and had been in the drug store more than a year. He offered affidavits of his good character from the Mayor and other civic leaders of Eldorado.

BROKERS SUED FOR $26,000 ON REPURCHASE AGREEMENT

S. W. Straus & Co. Failed to Keep Bargain Under Which She Bought Bonds, Woman Alleges. Suit for $26,235 was filed in Circuit Court here today against S. W. Straus & Co., investment brokers, by Mrs. Bertha Levy, a Kansas City hotel proprietor, who charges the company failed to keep an agreement to re-purchase bonds from her at one point less than their sale price. Her attorney, Edward W. Forstel, told reporters most of the bonds were in default. Mrs. Levy said in her petition that she began to purchase bonds from the Straus agent at Kansas City in June, 1923, on the alleged re-purchase agreement which, she claimed, had been reasserted as she continued to deal with the concern until a month before the 1929 stock market crash. The $26,235, she stated, represented the amount she paid in that period for bonds with a face value of $26,500 in hotel, theater and similar issues. Last Jan. 7, she said, she attempted to hold the brokers to the re-purchase agreement, and they refused to carry it out.

Warning Against 17-Year Locusts. By the Associated Press. LEXINGTON, Ky.—W. A. Price, State entomologist, says 17-year locusts are due this year in Clinton, Grant, Green, Hardin, Letcher and Wolfe counties in Kentucky. He warns they may injure young trees in laying their eggs, as they puncture twigs and limbs and give trees the appearance of having been struck by blight. However, he expects no damage.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS TO NEGRO GRADUATES

At Howard U., He Urges Them to Take Leadership in Race's Development.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 10.—

Standing before a group of Negro college students at Howard University, President Hoover today congratulated them upon their preparation to assume political and economic leadership among their people.

The chief executive's commencement address at the university—one of the largest institutions of its kind in the East—was his first visit there since becoming president. His predecessor, Calvin Coolidge, addressed the students in 1925.

Mr. Hoover declared it an "inspiration" to enter the institution. Nothing the Federal Government has done, he asserted, reflects more credit upon it than the aid given such universities.

Mrs. Hoover With Him.
Mr. Hoover accompanied the President on the drive to the university and sat with him and his aides during the brief address. The text of his speech follows:

"It is an inspiration to come into this great institution of higher education for the Negro race.

"Nothing that the Federal Government has done reflects more credit upon it for the meeting of an obligation than this institution to bring to a great segment of our population the means of overcoming handicap for which they were not responsible and of leveling upward for them an equal opportunity to share in the full measure of citizenship with their brethren of other races.

"It is vital in a democracy that the public opinion upon which it rests shall be an informed and educated opinion.

"The Negro race comprises 10 per cent of our population, and unless this 10 per cent is developed proportionately with the rest of the population, it cannot pull its proper strength at the oars of our pressing problems of democracy.

"Trained Leadership.
"To provide this development requires trained leadership, and I conceive that to be the functioning of Howard University. You are providing here professional training in all those fields to which the community naturally looks. For leadership—religion, law, medicine, education, science and art.

"You are providing this professional training to men and women of the colored race, to your own best talents, your own leaders by nature and through the instruction which they receive here.

your natural leaders become trained leaders; and this training is of the same kind and of equal efficiency with that which is provided for the natural leaders of the white race.

"By this process, the colored people are being integrated fully into the broad stream of the national life, sharing in the obligation and opportunity for political service, for economic advancement, for educational development of the individual, and for enjoyment of all the benefits of science and art and general culture, including skilled medical service, more beautiful home surroundings and a share in the intellectual progress of mankind.

"These things are the natural rights of the citizens of a republic. The Federal Government has nobly acknowledged its duty to provide them here.

"I congratulate the graduating class upon completing their studies with credit, and I congratulate the Negro race upon your efforts to prepare yourselves for leadership in their development. I wish you well in your careers upon which you now embark."

Recited by Kathryn Trombley.
Miss Kathryn Trombley, daughter of Mrs. A. B. Trombley of 88 Aberdeen place, gave a recital in expression yesterday afternoon at the Evans School of Individual Instruction, Florissant road and Rosedale drive. She was assisted by Miss Margaret Lutkewitz, pianist, and Miss Sylvia Walden, violinist.

MUNY OPERA SEATS FOR REST OF SEASON ON SALE SUNDAY

Tickets Not Obtainable Far in Advance Before Because of Doubt About Tax.

Tickets for remaining seats to any performance of the Municipal Opera, for the rest of the season will be on sale, beginning Sunday, at the box office in the lobby of the Arcade Building.

In previous years tickets for any performance were on sale from a week before the season opened, but the practice could not be followed this year until it was known what amusement tax would be levied in the Government revenue bill which has been pending.

The new tax, which goes into effect Tuesday, June 21, amounts to 10 per cent on all opera tickets of 50 cents or more. There will be no tax on 25-cent seats.

A block of seats at last night's performance of "The New Moon" was held by the Missouri Conservatory, and reservations have been made for the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' Exchange and Real Estate Exchange to take special sections tonight.

SENATE KEEPS 2000 ON ARMY OFFICER LIST

Passes $389,000,000 Bill, Defeating Plan to Cut Commissioned Personnel.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Providing for 2000 more officers than the 10,000 sanctioned by the House, the $389,000,000 War Department appropriation bill was approved last night by the Senate and sped to conference with the other branch of Congress. It is the fourth of the supply bills to pass both Houses. Final approval came without a record vote.

Upholding its Appropriations Committee, the Senate rejected a House provision limiting to 10,000 the number of army officers, and agreed there should be 12,000, as now.

Reversing its attitude toward other appropriation bills, the Senate turned down, 47 to 23, an attempt by Senator McKellar (Dem., Tennessee), to send the bill back to the committee with orders to cut the appropriation 10 per cent from the $389,000,000 it carried as it came from the House.

McKellar said the bill had been slashed only $2,000,000 from the House figures and that greater economies should be made because preceding bills were decreased by larger amounts.

Norris (Rep.), Nebraska, assailed the training methods of the War Department in citizens' military training camps, contending they taught opposition to the initiative and referendum, election of Judges and the right of recall. Later in the day a proposal by Norris to eliminate $2,000,000 for the camps was defeated, 48 to 11.

Other attempts to change the bill were defeated.
Sentenced for Killing Landlady.
MAYS LANDING, N. J., June 10.—Louis Fine, 31 years old, of Atlantic City, yesterday was convicted of murder and sentenced to die in the electric chair for the killing of his landlady, Mrs. Mattie Schauf of Atlantic City, last March 2. Fine was convicted of strangling Mrs. Schauf. He was accused of having placed the body in a truck and sending it by express to a Philadelphia rooming house where it was discovered.

Wins Legion Relief Work Award.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 10.—The William R. McCoy Post #2 of Rochester, Minn., is announced as the winner of the award for outstanding employment and relief work in which the 10,400 American Legion posts have been engaged in recent months. Help was provided by the Rochester Post and its auxiliary to 3339 persons, during the winter and spring.

ANTI-NARCOTIC LAW SENTENCE

Truck Driver of Detroit Gets 18 Months in Reformatory.

Clyde Stone, 30-year-old truck driver, of Detroit, was sentenced to 18 months in the industrial reformatory at Chillicothe, O., yesterday by Federal Judge Wham in East St. Louis when he pleaded guilty of violating the Harrison anti-narcotic act.

Arrested last January at Harrisburg, Ill., Stone was charged with selling morphine to a Government informer.

Fagool Motors Bankruptcy Suit.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—A petition asking that Fagool Motors Co. be declared bankrupt has been filed in Federal District Court here. The petition says appointment of a receiver and levying of a writ of attachment against property, which writ has not been discharged, constitute acts in bankruptcy. The petitioners are three creditors stating claims of $12,694.

Killed in Storm Cellar.

By the Associated Press.
BENTON, Ark., June 10.—George Sparks, 27-year-old farmer of the Salem community, died with other members of his family in a storm cellar. Lightning struck into the refuge and killed him.

SARAZEN WINS BRITISH OPEN TITLE WITH RECORD SCORE OF 283

MAC SMITH IS SECOND WITH 288, TOM ARMOUR HAS 302 TOTAL

aggregate of 288 and second place. The order of finish of the lead-

283—Gene Sarazen, U. S.
288—MacDonald Smith, U. S.
292—Arthur Havers, Great Britain.

292—Percy Allis, Charles Whitcombe and A. H. Padgham, Great Britain.

293—W. H. Davies and Arthur Lacey, Great Britain.

294—Fred Robson, Great Britain.

295—Henry Cotton, Abe Mitchell, Archie Compston, Great Britain.

Tommy Armour, the defending champion from Detroit, faded badly on the final round with his hopes of victory gone, and finished with an 83 for a 72 hole total of 302.

Best American record was set by Sarazen's 283, which was three strokes better than the best winning total in the American open, Charles (Chick) Evans 286 at Minneapolis in 1916.

MacDonald Smith, other member of the American "big three," had the heart-breaking experience of scoring 288 for a total good enough to have won all but the current British championship and the 1927 event. Smith, a native of Carleton Place, Scotland, has been striving for years to win the British title and although always up in the running has always been just a "little shy."

Armour couldn't do anything right on his final round, even his drives falling him, and his 80 cut him away from the leaders.

First prize in the British open is $200, about $300 at the current rate of exchange, and not enough even to pay Sarazen's steamer fare, but the prestige that goes with the title probably will mean at least $50,000 to the American professional.

Favored by No Good Fortune.

Sarazen had no great good fortune on his final round, no spectacular play, just a routine of good golf with occasional nibbles such as a bad mashie-niblick shot at the fourth which cost him six.

Starting with a par four and then a birdie, Gene hit the hole from 10 yards at the third for two, but the ball didn't drop. Then came his bad shot at the fourth. At this hole he overran the green about 50 yards. He stepped up to the ball and apparently thought the shot was too much, he missed the green and then took two putts.

Gene sank a five-yarder for a birdie three at the seventh. At the eighth he hit the flag with a No. 2 iron, then sank a two-yarder for an eagle. He got his par four at the ninth to turn in 32, three under par.

Sarazen started home with three fours, although he was putting for threes at both the eleventh and twelfth holes. At the latter his first effort from eight yards rimmed the cup.

Three Putts on No. 15.

At the thirteenth he needed five after he had over-played his second, chipped back too strong, and then missed a holeable putt. He got his par three at the short fourteenth, but three putts from three yards cost him a five at the fifteenth.

He sank a five-yarder for a birdie three at the sixteenth. He couldn't reach the green in two at the long seventeenth, but chipped well and for the fifth time in the year his first putt lifted the cup. He had an eagle four at the eighteenth, for a "one under par."

Gene Gets an "Eagle" Three.

Sarazen started his final round with a par four and got a "birdie" four on No. 1. He had a par three on the third. Sarazen got his par four at the fourth. He pulled his tee shot at the fifth and an uncertain approach cost him a four, one over par. The sixth he played in par four. He drove with a brassie at the seventh, missed the hole, and then rolled his ball up to the hole, again one over par.

Gene made up for this lapse at the next hole, however, canning an eight-yard putt for an eagle three, repeating his performance on the same hole in the third round. He got his par four at the eighth, but three putts from three yards cost him a five at the fifteenth.

He pulled the tee shot at the tenth, but he missed the hole, and then rolled his ball up to the hole, again one over par.

Another pulled tee shot at the tenth found the rough and he took five strokes for the hole and again one over par. He again pulled his tee shot at the eleventh, but recovered nicely to get his par four.

Prince of Wales in Gallery.

Gene was one over par on the twelfth but he made the thirteenth in par four. With the Prince of Wales looking on Gene sank a five-yard putt for a birdie two at the fourteenth.

He three-putted the next hole, however, for a five, one over par, missing a two-yard putt for even figures.

He sliced his second shot at the sixteenth to the right of the green, then flubbed the chip shot from the heavy clover, the ball moving only a couple of yards from his lady-like thop at it. He took a mashie-niblick then and laid the ball dead for a five, again one over par.

His brassie shot at the seventeenth stopped 25 yards short of the green, he pitched to within eight yards of the hole and just tipped the cup, finally tapping it in.

STILLMAN TO MEET TOM AMBRAC, MEMPHIS, INSTEAD OF FUENTE.

Tony Fuente, Mexican heavy-weight boxer, has been withdrawn from Jack Tippet's card at Battery A next Monday night. Fuente had agreed to meet Al Stillman, but he had discovered that Fuente had been charged with two fake fights in his career he conferred with George Williams, Stillman's manager, and they decided to call off the bout.

Tippet's this afternoon announced that he had secured Tom Ambrac, Memphis, Tenn., to box Stillman. The veteran promoter and fight referee of Memphis, Billy Haack, recommended Ambrac to Tippet. According to Haack, Ambrac is 32 years of age, weighs 181 pounds and has had 80 fights, of which he won 27 by knockouts.

John Schwake, Webster Groves heavyweight, meets John Freeman, Salamanca, N. Y., in one of the other bouts, while Allen Matthews, Negro middleweight, renews his feud with K. O. Kelly, Akron, O., in the third 10-rounder.

Steve Maize and Johnny Miles, local heavyweights, meet in a four-round preliminary, while two additional four-round events bring together Eddie Foster, Dallas, Tex., and Frank Stolske, and Russell Conklin against Chick Rains.

From an inch away for his par five. He got a fine drive down a corridor of humans at the hole and sent his second eight yards from the hole. Putting safely he first rolled his ball up close, then tapped it in for a birdie four and his 74.

"There it is, let them shoot at it," he said as he pushed his way through the crowd.

Havers who won the title in 1923, the last Briton to score, set a new course record of 68, six strokes under par in the third round.

Havers putted for a record 87 on the last green, where he was in a two, but he missed the long one and holed out for a birdie four and his 68, one stroke under the record set Tuesday by Eric McRuvie, Scot amateur, and Don Curtis, young British professional.

M. I. T.'S SPRINT STAR, DICK BELL, ENTERS W.A.A.U. DASH EVENTS

By Damon Kerby.

Richard Bell, St. Louis boy who holds the 100-yard New England Intercollegiate championship and is a student at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, will compete in the Western A. A. U. track and field meet at Maplewood High School, June 18. Bell's best time in the 100 is 9.6 and in the 220-yard dash in 21 seconds flat.

His school term ended, Bell is in St. Louis training for the Intercollegiate A. A. U. meet at Berkeley, Calif. July 1 and 2, winners of which will qualify for a place on the U. S. Olympic team. He will enter one of the dashes at the District meet but he hasn't decided which one it will be—and he may race in both.

Track followers have expressed the hope that he will run in the century, for in this race he would likely be pitted against a brilliant array, including Jimmy Bell, 18, international intercollegiate holder, Hudson Helmhich, University of Illinois star; Bob McClure, fast-stepping youngster of University City High, and possibly Jack Tierney, captain of Marquette University track team. There, gentlemen, is a field! All are St. Louis boys and are capable of running 100 yards inside the 10-second mark.

Bell a Six-Footer.

Bell, six feet one inch tall, and with a general air of level-headedness which belies his 18 years, set a track team. There, gentlemen, is a field! All are St. Louis boys and are capable of running 100 yards inside the 10-second mark.

At Francis Field after a workout and discussed his track plans for the immediate future and the high lights of his activities this season to date.

"I want to specialize in the 220," he said. "I feel as though I'm at my best at that distance, while I feel rather clumsy and as though I don't get going in the 100"—this being said without the suggestion of a smile, even though 2.4 admits a track man to serious consideration in most any company.

Bell wasn't sure that he could compete in the district event when he returned home from school, more than a week ago, but an inquiry brought an affirmative answer from his track coach, with a word of caution not to run too much. Bell then placed his entry blank in the mail and it will reach district track officials today.

Won New England Champ.

He won the 100-yard New England Intercollegiate championship at Providence, R. I., three weeks ago. He ran the race in 10 seconds flat in a hard run. He then took second in the 220, finishing behind a man he had beaten several times previously, possibly—and this is no alibi, he said—because he injured a nerve in his right leg in the earlier race and had to run the 220 with the leg tightly taped.

The St. Louis boy won several other important races during the outdoor season after having been a consistent winner in the winter indoor events.

When Bell departed from St. Louis two years ago after graduating from Country Day School, he was just another 10-second man, and the development of his additional speed means that he has lots of natural ability plus a liking for hard work—scholarship 2.4 admits being what they are at M. I. T.

How would these M. I. T. classroom hours strike the average student athlete? Classes, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday; 9 to 4 on Friday, and 9 until noon, Saturday. On Sunday M. I. T. students apparently can do anything they please as long as they spend the day studying.

This is the trail Bell is hitting in order to become a mining engineer—and track activities come outside those week-day classroom hours.

"I might be able to put in more hours of track at another school, but I wouldn't trade," he said. "There's something about M. I. T. that holds a fellow."

This indicates to an outsider that there is strong school spirit at M. I. T., regardless of the fact that it may be a bit difficult for the boys to break out in a fast-moving college yell for Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Guidahl qualified for the open automatically as he tied for third place in last year's tournament which relieved him from the necessity of qualifying in the sectional trial.

Fogarty led the sectional trial at Algonquin last Monday with 133 for the 16-hole test which was the second low score turned in by the more than 100 who played in the tests in 20 districts throughout the country. Morse and Moore tied with 140 each.

WRAY'S COLUMN

How Times Have Changed.

Two sprightly fellows, in their early sixties, shook hands and smiled as they were introduced as guests at a Scotch Rite Club luncheon Wednesday. They were Harry S. Sharpe and Frank Crosby, both of St. Louis—names familiar enough to the young bloods of 40 years ago, and still before the public today, in business capacities.

As these two gripped hands and looked into each other's eyes they could not have failed to recall another occasion in their lives when once before they had clasped hands and peered at one another. That was just before beginning one of the world's most exciting ring battles of all time. For these two men, on Feb. 5, 1892, fought the longest glove contest ending in a knockout in the history of the ring, 77 rounds.

UPSETS MARK COLLEGIATE TRACK TRIALS

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 10.—Charles Scherfley of Minnesota created an upset in the opening heat of the 120-yard high hurdles first trial event of the national collegiate track and field championships at Stagg Field today by defeating Jack Keller, Ohio State, the favorite, in 14.7 seconds.

George Saling, Iowa star, took the second and last trial heat of the high in 14.6 seconds, barely beating John Black of Ohio State.

ED LEWIS, OLD AND FAT, THROWS SHIKAT, YOUNG AND POWERFUL

NEW YORK, June 10.—Calmy, almost apathetically, a herd of weathered, headed by "Strangler" Ed Lewis, the ancient cave-man of Kentucky, and "Ruthless" Richard Shikat of Germany, opened Madison Square Garden's new outdoor bowl on Long Island last night.

That portion of the crowd of about 35,000 that came to see the wrestling watched Lewis, old and fat, throw Shikat, young and powerful in 16 and 17, with a head lock.

Those who attended mostly to view the huge amphitheater where Jack Schmeling and Jack Sharkey will fight for the heavyweight title June 21 had a nice time parading through vacant seats and visiting with friends.

Fans boo the Wrestlers.

About the time the friendly folk had seen all there was of the place, those who came only for the wrestling were booing gently. As the curtain hour of 11 p. m. impended, Lewis came suddenly to life, beat the youthful Shikat brutally about the body with both fists, threw him violently to the mat and pinned him to the great surprise of all.

Lewis, former champion in a local group to that of Jack Curley, for whom he wrestled last night, thus "gained the right" to challenge Jim London for the heavyweight title, in the Madison Square Garden division.

Lewis weighed 236 pounds and Shikat 212.

The new bowl, a cement-lined saucer hollowed out of the ground, will seat 70,000 when filled.

JACOBS AND KAMRATH IN SEMIFINALS OF MARYLAND TENNIS

BALTIMORE, June 10.—Edward Jacobs of Baltimore and Karl Kamrath of Texas, seeded No. 1 and 2, respectively, won in straight sets in the Maryland men's open tennis quarter-finals yesterday.

Jacobs turned back Martin Duxby of the University of Texas, 6-2, 6-1, and Kamrath, also of the University of Texas, eliminated Robert Elliott of Baltimore, 6-3, 6-2.

William Jacobs of Baltimore, a student of the University of Pittsburgh, put out Bernard Welsh of Duke University, 6-1, 4-6, 6-3.

Top Flight Wins, Brings Earnings Up to $247,450

NEW YORK, June 10.—Top Flight, champion two-year-old of 1931, yesterday won the Coaching Club American Oaks at Belmont Park, as expected, but the queen of the American turf did not win in the easy manner indicated by her odds of 1 to 5.

In scoring her second victory of the year for C. V. Whitney and boosting her total earnings to $247,450, Top Flight just managed to gain the decision by a half length over the 20 to 1 shot, Argosie, a daughter of Man o' War from the Glen Riddle farms. The Wheatley Stable's Unique was another half-length to the rear, third in the field of 10.

But for the perfect ride of Sonny Workmen, the daughter of Dis Domo might not have won the purse of $15,100.

OSAGE CLUB NET TEAM WINS FROM TRIPLE A

The Osage Country Club tennis team defeated the Triple A Club players, 3 to 2, in a St. Louis District interclub tennis match which was completed at the Triple A Club yesterday afternoon. Last Sunday at Osage the teams each won two matches.

In the contest yesterday, Edmund and Gus Soriano of Osage defeated the Triple A team of Robert Weinstock and Robert Herford, 6-2, 6-1. In its next match tomorrow the Triple A team will meet the St. Louis Country Club players. This match will be played as part of the formal opening of the Clayton Municipal courts at Price and Ladue roads.

NORTH HILLS NET TEAM MEETS WESTBOROUGH IN INTER-CLUB MATCH

The North Hills Country Club tennis team will be host to players from the Westborough Country Club tomorrow afternoon in a St. Louis District interclub match. Last week, North Hills defeated the St. Louis Country Club team 4 to 1, while Westborough drew a bye.

Capt. Bill Reinhardt of Westborough will have such players as Richard Rosebrough, Proctor Wright, Kenneth Senkowsky, Gratia Johnson and A. W. Mohr on his squad. Rosebrough and Wright will play first doubles and will also probably play singles with Senkowsky as the third man.

SENATE GETS REPORT ON RADIO EXPENSES

Commission Says Federal System Would Cost $50,000,000 to $125,000,000.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 10.—The Radio Commission notified the Senate yesterday that any plan to eliminate the use of radio facilities for advertising would "destroy the present system of broadcasting."
The commission also reported on the cost of a system of Government-owned radio stations.
This was contained in a report presented in response to a resolution by Senator Couzens (Rep.) of Michigan asking for a summary of the extent of radio advertising and whether Government operation of broadcasting would be desirable.
Chairman Saltonstall and Commissioner Lafont disagreed with a majority opinion that additional legislation would be necessary to limit commercial broadcasting programs.

Saltonstall and Lafont said the existing law could be made to apply, as it permits revocation of licenses if the programs do not comply with the "public interest, convenience and necessity."

Stating that broadcasting in the United States depends upon commercial receipts to finance the stations, the report said:

"Any plan, the purpose of which is to eliminate the use of radio facilities for commercial advertising purposes, will, if adopted, destroy the present system of broadcasting."

The report said there was no Government-owned station in the United States, and that many problems would have to be taken into consideration, such as financing, state and sectional interests if Government operation were desired.
The commission added it was "ready to prepare detailed plans for technical arrangements to meet the needs of a policy that might be determined if it is decided Government ownership is desirable" and recommended thorough study of the subject.

It said a system of 1000 low-power stations could be established at a cost of $120,000,000, or two or more national programs through several high-power stations in strategic locations, to cost about $50,000,000.

Questionnaires were sent to 607 stations with replies from 533. In one week of checking the commission found approximately one-third of the program hours were commercial.

The total capital investment of all stations replying, including the chain-owned ones, was put at $47,000,000. Receipts were around $77,000,000 a year and expenses about the same.

Chicago Car Men Vote on Strike.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, June 10.—Chicago members of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees balloted today by a strike vote whether to accept a wage reduction of 7 cents an hour. Arbitration by international officers would precede a strike even if it were voted. The vote is 77 cents an hour. Trainmen of the elevated lines will take a similar referendum tomorrow on a proposed 10 per cent wage cut.

Baby Born in Union Station.

A girl was born yesterday afternoon at the Travelers Aid Bureau in Union Station. The mother, who is unmarried, said her home was in Litchfield, Ill. She and the baby were taken to City Hospital after being attended by a physician at the station.

ITALIAN WHEAT REGULATION

By the Associated Press.

ROME, June 10.—Rigid restrictions on the use of foreign wheat in Italy will become effective again next month when millers will be required to use 95 per cent of domestic wheat in the mixing of their flour, the Government announced yesterday.

July 7 was fixed by decree as the date for enforcement of the order in Southern Italy and the Province of Lazio. It will become effective in Northern and Central Italy on July 15. Similar restrictions, imposed last year, were lightened gradually in the last few months. It was announced that the use of foreign wheat would be limited again during the coming harvest season to protect the Italian market.

McLEAN QUILTS AS PUBLISHER

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The resignation of Edward B. McLean as publisher of the Washington Post was announced today by Julius Payser, his counsel.

By his resignation, McLean relinquishes all power over the affairs of the paper, leaving control solely in the hands of the American Security & Trust Co., co-trustee of the estate of his father, John R. McLean. This action follows a formal agreement to settle outstanding proceedings against the publisher brought by Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean, his estranged wife, to remove him as co-trustee of the entire estate. McLean will continue to serve in that capacity in administering the remainder of the estate.

CANADIAN-U. S. AMITY PERPETUATED IN PARK

Combined Montana and Alberta Preserve to Be Dedicated on June 18.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 10.—As a memorial to the friendship between Canada and the United States, the Waterton-Glacier International Glacier Park, Mont., June 18.

Ceremonies will be under auspices of the Rotary Clubs of Montana and Alberta who initiated the project of joining Waterton Lake and Glacier National Park. The two adjoining parks have long been recognized by people in both countries as constituting virtually one park and as being in a sense international.

Both Governments, expressing the desire to promote enduring amity, have enacted legislation creating the international park. Neither measure, however, provides for any change in the handling of the two parks. Glacier will remain solely under United States administration and Waterton Lake Park will continue to be subject to Dominion regulation.

It is expected, however, that the working out of road and trail improvements in the future will be done with the international significance of the two in mind. People of all nations visiting one would be impelled by a desire to see the other.

So closely are the two parks linked that Waterton Lake, which gives its name to the Canadian preserve, is divided by the international boundary line between Montana and Alberta. Hotels and camps in the two parks are connected by motor highway and by launch service on the lake.

National Park officials say there is no area in America that has more scenic beauty than that comprised within this international park. Tremendous mountains rise above hundreds of lakes. Waterton Valley, luxuriant in forests and bordered by majestic peaks, bisects the northern part of Glacier Park. It is the southern continuation of the trough in which Waterton Lake is situated.

Among the higher peaks in that section are Mount Cleveland, rising 10,438 feet above sea level, and Goathead, with an altitude of 8693 feet.

SPEAKEASY OWNER SENTENCED FOR ROBBERING HIS CUSTOMERS

Federal Judge Says Severe Term of Three Years Is for Way He Ran Place.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, June 10.—Louis Greenstein, alleged operator of a speakeasy, was sentenced to three years in Atlanta penitentiary yesterday.

"The severity," Federal Judge Frank Coleman said, "is not because you ran a speakeasy, but because of the kind of speakeasy you ran. You robbed your patrons."

Business men testified they got into taxicabs and remembered little more until they awoke in the speakeasy, to be presented for bills with large amounts. One said he was held captive a day and a half till he signed a check for $2000.

The prosecution suggested the cab drivers may have drugged them with carbon monoxide gas.

RETURN TO GOLD BASEBest Monetary Mechanism at Present Stage of Development, Committee Finds.By the Associated Press.
GENEVA, June 19.—A return to the gold standard was recommended by the League of Nations Gold Committee yesterday in a report that declared the gold standard to be the best available monetary mechanism at this stage of economic development.To aid in restoration of the gold standard in those countries which have abandoned it, the report recommended a "satisfactory solution of the war debts and reparations problems," as well as a reasonable degree of freedom in the movement of goods and services.The committee has been working for two years. George E. Roberts represented the United States, the other members coming from South Africa, Belgium, Germany, France and Italy."Where credit contraction has been carried to extremes, it is proper, indeed imperative," the report said, "for the Central Bank to take action within its power to check excessive contraction."The present reserve ratios which now bind the Central Banks should be reduced and the gold exchange standard system should be revived in modified form, the report added.ITALY COLLECTING OLD GOLD Paying $300 a Pound in Effort to Build Up Reserve.By the Associated Press.
ROME, June 19.—A gold hunt unprecedented in many years is going on in Italy. It seeks not so much hidden treasure as forgotten treasure. Old gold watches, bracelets, earrings, battered coins, chains and brooches have come to light from dusty cases, and taken to the Bank of Italy.This Government bank is offering the high rate of $300 a pound for the precious metal. All the gold received will be added to Italy's reserve backing up her currency. She now has a 40 per cent coverage.

AIR FORCE PLANNED BY CHINA

By the Associated Press.
NANKING, China, June 19.—
The Chinese National Government has contracted with a group of former United States military aviators to develop an air force, it was indicated in official circles today.It was understood plans had been completed through Edward Howard, United States air attache at Shanghai, with the approval of the State Department.
The plan calls for the United States group to come to China and take charge of an air training school at Hanchow.VERA CRUZ SEIZURE LAW NOW OPERATIVEStatute Authorizes Confiscation of Any Private Property for Public Use.By the Associated Press.
MEXICO CITY, June 19.—Dispatches from Jalapa say the expropriation law in the State of Vera Cruz, which authorizes the State government to confiscate any private property for public use, went into effect today.Dispatches from Merella say the Legislature of the State of Michoacan also has passed a similar law, the second to follow the lead of Hidalgo State, where the law has been in effect since last month.Financial and business circles have expressed uneasiness over the news and the prediction was made that the peso would fall as a result.The Vera Cruz law was held up, following its passage a week ago,
and President Ortiz Rubio sought to persuade the Governor not to promulgate it.Bankers, business men and lawyers here insist the law is a violation of the Federal Constitution.
Its passage had an effect on business here this week. Foreign merchants demanded cash for goods, and Mexicans became panicky in attempting to convert their holdings into foreign currency.The value of the peso fell from 3.50 to 3.20 to the dollar, far below its normal value.

WASHINGTON

U. S. TELLS NEVADA TO KEEP HANDS OFF BOULDER DAM AREA

Secretary Wilbur Insists on Full Federal Control of the Reservation. WASHINGTON, June 10.—The propriety of exclusive Federal jurisdiction over the Boulder Dam Reservation in matters of taxation and application of mining, gambling and other laws was defended strongly yesterday by Secretary of Interior Wilbur in a letter to Gov. Dabar of Nevada.

Following recent attacks by State officials on his objection to State taxation of the Government reservation, Wilbur wrote that "the attempt to compel State taxation will merely harass and delay the project, the early completion of which will benefit your State as well as the National interests."

"During construction exclusive Federal jurisdiction is essential," he said, "and this means non-operation of the Nevada statutes respecting taxation, mining, gambling, and other statutes which would interfere with the purpose at hand, which is construction of the dam."

"For obvious reasons the State mining laws, prohibiting use of the machinery necessary in constructing the large diversion tunnels, should not be applicable. Work is progressing smoothly under a single jurisdiction and the addition of State supervision would hamper the work. For manifest reasons the Nevada laws permitting gambling are not adaptable to an area of this kind. The Nevada policy respecting segregated vice districts is equally out of place here."

SUIT TO TEST STATE'S CONTROL OVER FERRIES

Operators Fight Illinois Commission's Attempt to Establish Authority Over Rates.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. CARME, Ill., June 10.—The legality of the order of the Illinois Commerce Commission in assuming authority over ferries is questioned in an appeal filed in White County Circuit Court. Ferries across the Wabash River between White County and Indiana, owned by A. E. Fretagot, of New Harmony; James D. Crooks, Grayville; Carmel Fletcher, Maunie, and G. T. Zergibel and W. L. Thompson, Mount Vernon, Ind., brought the action.

An order of the Commerce Commission May 10 ordered the ferries to file rate schedules, classifications and rules.

Now Have County Licenses. The ferries have been operating under licenses from the counties they touch, and any regulation of rates was left to the county boards. Matters of regulations involving public safety, the river, lights and safety rules have been handled by the Federal river service.

The order of the Commerce Commission held that neither the Interstate Commerce Commission nor any other Federal agency had assumed jurisdiction over the ferries touching the White County banks of the Wabash River; and that the Illinois commission does have such jurisdiction because the traffic handled by the ferries is largely of a local nature.

The ferry owners, in resisting this order, allege it is the first step toward increasing their rates to permit competition by toll bridges. They point out that the controversy was started upon a petition by the bridge company at New Harmony asking that ferries be controlled.

Rate Fight With Toll Bridge. The Harmony Way Bridge Co. owns and operates a toll bridge at New Harmony at virtually the same location where one of the ferries involved has been operated for many years.

The bridge company charged 50 cents a crossing when its span was completed, the first of last year, and the Fretagot ferry reduced its price to 25 cents. The bridge company then filed a petition with the Commerce Commission asking that the ferries in White County be regulated and setting out that their competition prevented profitable operation of the bridge.

C. M. Hay to Speak to Negroes. Charles M. Hay, candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States Senate, will address the Central Negro Democratic Organization tonight at its headquarters, 2326 Market street. The organization is a consolidation of all Negro Democratic ward clubs.

POTS KREUGER & TOLL CASH BALANCE IN U. S. AT $62,000

Company's "Official Observer" Testifies at Bankruptcy Hearing in New York.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, June 10.—Testimony that of the many millions of dollars tied up in the affairs of the bankrupt Greuger & Toll Co., allied corporation of the International Match Corporation, only $62,000.94 in cash is known to exist in this country, was introduced today before Oscar W. Ehrhorn, referee in bankruptcy.

Alexis Aminoff, who served as "Official Observer" for Greuger & Toll in the United States, said he had been able to learn of only the small cash balances and various blocks of securities.

He testified the Swedish authorities handling the affairs of all the Greuger & Toll participating debentures. These were said to be in the hands of Lee, Higginson & Co., Greuger's fiscal agents in this country.

Game.

Timothy Dineen, 7-year-old son of Mrs. Christina Dineen, 519A

Cass avenue, suffered a skull injury last night in a fall from a tree near the Mullaphy Playground, Eleventh and Mullaphy streets.

His mother said he and a group of boys had been playing a game of "follow the leader."

Found Injured in Street.

An unidentified man about 36 years old was found unconscious near a driveway at 4157 Fairfax avenue early today. Blood stains led to a basement saloon at 4157

Fairfax. The Negro proprietor said he had never seen the victim before.

The man, who is at City Hospital, is about 5 feet 10 inches tall and was wearing a blue suit with tan shirt and tie. Police said he had been struck on the head.

MAH'S CHINESE ROUTED SAYS JAPANESE REPORT

Gen. Hiramatsu Said to Have Driven Insurgents From Hulan-Hailun Railway.

By the Associated Press.
TOKIO, June 10.—Major-General Hiramatsu with his Twenty-seventh Brigade of the Fourteenth Japanese Army Division, reported today that he had smashed the forces under Gen. Mah Chan-shan in Northern Manchuria, according to a dispatch to the Rengo News Agency from Hailun. The dispatch says Gen. Mah's troops were driven from the Hulan-Hailun Railway and were retreating toward Heilong.

Gen. Mah was with his troops, the dispatch says, directing the offensive on Harbin, and he withdrew first to Tungpei, then to Tetu and finally toward Heilong.

A Japanese base was established at Talanchen on the Twint-har-koshan Railway whence Japanese planes bombed each place.

Gen. Mah established headquarters. The planes were following the Chinese retreat, the dispatch says.

MRS. HOOVER SEES 100,000

President's Wife Honored at New York Luncheon and Gets Roses

from Children.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, June 10.—While

Mrs. Herbert Hoover looked on, more than 100,000 children, dressed in white and carrying little flags, marched in the annual parade of the Brooklyn Sunday School Union

yesterday. It was the first time the parade, a custom of more than a century, had been reviewed by a President's wife.

Because it was impossible for the whole line of march to be routed past the stand in Long Meadow, an automobile later took Mrs. Hoover to other parts of the city to view as many of the parade units

as possible.

At a luncheon at the Montauk

Club, preceding the parade, a large bouquet of roses was presented to her in the name of the Brooklyn children.

"I will cherish the flowers for a long time," said Mrs. Hoover, "and the memory of the children always.

I have looked forward with much pleasure to this visit. It is inspiring to me to see what you are doing to emphasize on this day what the children must be getting from their teachers on all the 50-odd

Sunday School days of the year. It is gratifying to me that you are putting the biblical lessons from ages past into their lives. That is what we need."

R. & O. Fined $15,000.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Co. today was fined $15,000 by Federal Judge

Frank J. Coleman after a plea of guilty had been entered by the road's attorney to three indictments charging violation of the Elkins act.

The indictment charged the favor-

IMBODEN, Ark., June 10.—

Bodies found in an automobile 10 miles south of here yesterday were identified at Walnut Ridge as those of Fred Baty and Margaret Wheeler, each 24 years old, of Pigport,

Ark. Letters found in the car said the lives of the pair had become so entangled they felt death was their only choice. Each body bore a

Is Discussed.CURTIS EXPECTED for Platform Plank to Put New Life Into the Silver Industry.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 10.—The Republican National Committee settled down to hear its contesting delegates today. While delegations from Louisiana, Georgia, Mississippi and South Carolina mustered their arguments before the national committee, party leaders were keenly alive to the rapid development of prohibition developments and the openly expressed beliefs of the party platform should at least have a resubmission plank.Postmaster-General Brown, one of the closest of President Hoover's advisers, arrived yesterday, but he did not stand the party would have on prohibition was up to the convention itself and no one would know what the plank would contain until it came from the Resolutions Committee.Senator Fess of Ohio, chairman of the National Committee, denied that the President had committed himself to any specific plank.
Among the other arrivals was Edwin C. Dinwiddie, secretary of the National Prohibition Board of Strategy, and other dry organization leaders. They refused, however, to discuss any plans they may have formulated to fight the adoption of wet or moist party planks.Expect to Renounce Curtis.
Republican leaders in Washington are convinced that Charles Curtis will again be the vice presidential nominee with President Hoover.This word was passed along today as stories were published of moves to upset Curtis in favor of another other prospective candidate.It was pointed out that Mr.
Hoover's wishes probably will be respected. While the President has given no specific word for Curtis, it is believed in Republican circles he is ready to do so if necessary. It was considered significant that he has kept in close touch with the Vice President and was sanctioned in no way any opposition to him. The attendance of Curtis at last week's congressional parties at the White House was almost unprecedented and was attested by the political leaders. There is no denying that an element of the party has been agitated against the Kansas. Some close to the President are known to have attempted a movement against Curtis, but the word today was the Old Guard has stepped on this firmly.Among some of the incoming Westerners there was the hope that the Resolutions Committee would take into the platform a recommendation for an international convention designed to develop some method of breathing new life into the silver market.As the matter of prohibition was not forward in the debates and about hotel corridors, members were clattering out at the auditorium where the convention will be held. A platform for the speakers flanked on either side by the seats and desks at which will work hundreds of reporters was being constructed. Seats were being put into place for the hundreds of delegates and onlookers and working quarters were being arranged in the basement.Seats Selling Rapidly.
Amplifiers were being installed to carry the voices of the speakers from the first time in history from the speakers' platform to the galleries.
Arrangements with applications for reporter seats, which were placed on sale for the first time in history for the general public, officials said they looked for a complete sell-out tonight.Prime for Outright Repeal.
Dr. Joseph I. France, former Senator from Maryland and President Hoover's only avowed opponent for the Republican presidential nomination, issued a statement branding the proposed resubmission planks as "unworthy of the party" and urging the Republican party to stand "for outright repeal of both the Volstead act and the eighteenth amendment.""Merely to propose resubmission is to run away from the issue," he said. "To advocate this recommendation is equivocation and avoidance, another evidence of the lack of leadership and courage which has shattered confidence and led to progressive distinction in governmental action administration. It will satisfyCoolidge Says War Debts 'Can't

RESUBMISSION PLANK

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Former President Calvin Coolidge, discussing international war debts in the July issue of the International-Cosmopolitan Magazine, declares these obligations "cannot be canceled."After reciting the circumstances of the various debt settlements agreed on when he was President, Coolidge writes:
"I know we were not trying to over-reach anybody nor trying to drive a hard bargain. The money we furnished we had to borrow.
Someone must pay 't. It cannot be canceled. If we do not collect it from Europe, we must collect it from our own taxpayers."He said he has no knowledge of what is in the mind of the present Government, but goes on to say that, at the time the settlements were made, "we were seeking to restore faith in international financial integrity for the good of the world."Money for General War Purposes.
In calling attention to the various loans made to Europe by the United States, he goes on:
"But we get little help from specific figures or reasons for making the loans. In the main, we furnished money to carry on the war.
Others borrowed it for that general purpose. After the armistice, we furnished more money for food, supplies and reconstruction."The decision to oppose Shouse surprised most politicians. Up to now, the Roosevelt strategy has been almost wholly conciliatory.
When Al Smith made his celebrated thrust at "demagogues," the reply
was softly-worded. When Shouse
was "commended" by the Arrangements Committee for chairman, it was interpreted widely as a Roosevelt gesture of recognition toward that wing of the party which was opposing him.Last Sunday a conference of leaders assembled at the Governor's home at Hyde Park. Five Senators and nine members of the House had been summoned from Washington to meet with the local Roosevelt men. On the spacious lawn they gathered in a group
about the Governor, and the withdrawal from Shouse was only one of the results. Several things yet to be disclosed were decided. A floor manager was picked, but his identity was concealed.The decisions were militant decisions, presumably based on the assumption that the Roosevelt strength now had risen past a controlling majority of the convention
and that the time had come, therefore, to take complete possession of the party machinery.Shouse's retort, asking the country to make up its own mind
whether the Governor had been guilty of bad faith, apparently has had no retarding effect, so far as the Roosevelt faction is concerned.
Smith and those who conferred with him later in the week unhesitatingly gave their support to Shouse. It is not yet apparent
what the favorite son, Al, will do,
although James M. "Boss" of Ohio,
and Mayor Anton J. Cermak of Chicago, yesterday denounced the fight on Shouse, Cermak saying he would propose Senator Lewis for the permanent chairmanship if the Rooseveltians persisted.Line-Up of Votes.
The claims of the Roosevelt managers, some of them disputed, now forecast a first-ballot vote of nearly 700 out of the 1154 in the convention, counting Florida and Mississippi, which chose their delegates
this week, and Idaho, North Carolina and Indiana, yet to come. It takes 770 to nominate.With Virginia's endorsement of former Gov. Harry F. Byrd yesterday, the field of favorite sons and runners-up appears complete. Most calculations run up the non-Roosevelt strength like this:
Alfred E. Smith, 94, not counting votes claimed in New York and Pennsylvania; John N. Garner, 90;
James Hamilton Lewis, 58; George
White, 52; James A. Reed, 25;
Harry F. Byrd, 24; William H.
Murray, 23; Albert C. Ritchie, 16.Statement of Roosevelt's Manager

NEW YORK, June 10.—Gov.

vention campaign manager has issued what newspapers here interpret as a warning to Tammany Hall that Roosevelt can win theThe executive secretary of the Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, made this statement in a debate here last night on the liquor question with Capt. Fred G. Clarke, national commander of the Crusaders.Capt. Clarke advocated the adoption of the British system of liquor control and declared: "I would not be on this platform if prohibition had succeeded, or even partly succeeded. The eighteenth amendment does not prohibit, nor does it prevent temperance or sobriety."
The Methodist board, Dr. Wilson said, was aware prohibition has not been enforced 100 per cent and did not hope it would ever be. But the eighteenth amendment, he asserted, had never had a chance because, for one thing, "there has not been a dominant figure in the presidential chair since prohibition."Of bootleggers, Dr. Wilson said he had never seen but one—"Uncle Sam"—but "he went out with the liquor traffic forever."

about the Governor, and the withdrawal from Shouse was only one of the results. Several things yet to be disclosed were decided. A floor manager was picked, but his identity was concealed.The decisions were militant decisions, presumably based on the assumption that the Roosevelt
strength now had risen past a controlling majority of the convention
and that the time had come, therefore, to take complete possession
of the party machinery.Shouse's retort, asking the country to make up its own mind
whether the Governor had been guilty of bad faith, apparently has had no retarding effect, so far as
the Roosevelt faction is concerned.
Smith and those who conferred
with him later in the week unhesitatingly gave their support to Shouse. It is not yet apparent
what the favorite son, Al, will do,
although James M. "Boss" of Ohio,
and Mayor Anton J. Cermak of Chicago, yesterday denounced the fight on Shouse, Cermak saying he would propose Senator Lewis for
the permanent chairmanship if the Rooseveltians persisted.Line-Up of Votes.
The claims of the Roosevelt managers, some of them disputed, now
forecast a first-ballot vote of nearly 700 out of the 1154 in the convention, counting Florida and Mississippi, which chose their delegates
this week, and Idaho, North Carolina and Indiana, yet to come. It takes 770 to nominate.With Virginia's endorsement of former Gov. Harry F. Byrd yesterday, the field of favorite sons and runners-up appears complete. Most calculations run up the non-Roosevelt strength like this:
Alfred E. Smith, 94, not counting votes claimed in New York and Pennsylvania; John N. Garner, 90;
James Hamilton Lewis, 58; George

ON SHOUSE WIDENS BREACH IN PARTYSmith-Raskob Wing Plans
"Last Ditch" Resistance to Governor—May Even Oppose Barkley.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—However pugnacious next week's Republican national convention may become when prohibition comes up, all indications are that it will be mild compared to the Democrats' meeting the last week of June.Not only is there to be a last-ditch fight against Franklin D.
Roosevelt, but a first-ditch combat now is assured over the convention chairmanship.By their decision to oppose Jout-ett Shouse for permanent chairman the Roosevelt managers raised an issue which the opposition shows every sign of meeting directly.
There even are reports that they will put up a candidate against the Roosevelt-pledged Senator Barkley of Kentucky for temporary chairman. They may not go that far, but there is no question the Roosevelt move to substitute Senator Walsh of Montana for Shouse has been accepted as a definite attempt to read the whole Smith-Raskob-Shouse influence out of the convention picture.Roosevelt Changes Tactics.
The decision to oppose Shouse surprised most politicians. Up to now, the Roosevelt strategy has been almost wholly conciliatory.
When Al Smith made his celebrated
thrust at "demagogues," the reply
was softly-worded. When Shouse
was "commended" by the Arrangements Committee for chairman, it
was interpreted widely as a Roosevelt gesture of recognition toward
that wing of the party which was opposing him.Last Sunday a conference of leaders assembled at the Governor's home at Hyde Park. Five Senators and nine members of the House had been summoned from Washington to meet with the local Roosevelt men. On the spacious lawn they gathered in a group
about the Governor, and the withdrawal from Shouse was only one of the results. Several things yet to be disclosed were decided. A floor manager was picked, but his identity was concealed.The decisions were militant de-

In Fourth Congressional District a Resubmission Candidate Will Oppose Dry.

By the Associated Press.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 10.— Democratic nominations for two of Florida's contested congressional seats have fallen to prohibition referendum candidates and a third to a repealist while a referendum advocate and a dry will fight it out for the fourth in a run-off.Virtually complete returns from Tuesday's Democratic primary indicated victory for Mark Wilcox, West Palm Beach attorney who wants the eighteenth amendment repealed, in the Fourth District congressional race, and the incumbent, Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, confirmed her nomination. She ran as a referendum candidate.In the presidential preference, Gov. Roosevelt of New York received an overwhelming endorsement for Florida's 14 convention votes with 129,933 votes to 15,417 for Gov. W. H. Murray of Oklahoma and 2325 for L. J. Chasse-s, Wisconsin school teacher.In conceding nomination to Wilcox yesterday, Mrs. Owen announced plans for retirement, saying she would resign from Congress because of her aversion to "lame

TO GET LOYALTY OATH AGREEMENTIrish Free State President and Colleagues Confer With Premier MacDonald in London.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, June 10.—All efforts to reconcile Ireland's profession of complete independence from Great Britain and the commonwealth's insistence on the oath to the crown failed today.From before noon until after 5
p. m. the earnest and unsmiling President of the Free State, Eamon de Valera, and heads of the British Government, including Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, battled with words across the conference table at 10 Downing street.Finally, a few minutes before the train for Dublin was due to depart, the conferees disbanded.
MacDonald went to see the King before going to the Lausanne conferences tomorrow, and President de Valera and Vice-President Sean O'Kelly started back to Erin.The Short Communique.
While the cheers of 1000 or so Irish men and women, who had waited all day at the end of narrow Downing street for the reappearance of De Valera, echoed through Whitehall, a communique was being read aloud in the office of J. H. Thomas, Secretary for Dominions.It simply said: "There was a prolonged discussion on the points at issue, but it was not found possible to reach an agreement."
"It was disappointing to us," said a source close to the Irish President. "There are to be no further negotiations."
De Valera and O'Kelly had hardly reached their hotel when they were met by a large number of Irishmen who were waiting for them. They were then driven to their hotel in a motorcade.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, June 10.—An arms holiday of 10, 12 or 15 years will be proposed by Prime Minister MacDonald at the Geneva Disarmament Conference next week, the Daily Mail says.This paper, which has come to be regarded as an accurate meald's views, said the Prime Minister considers a long arms holiday as an alternative to reduction of armaments, prospects for which do not appear bright.MacDonald and Sir John Simon, the Foreign Secretary, are leaving for Paris tomorrow for preliminary discussion of the Lausanne Conference with Premier Herriot of France. It was expected that he will broach the suggestion of an arms holiday.Regular

BYRD PLANS ANOTHER
ANTARCTIC EXPEDITION

Expects to Sail Early in Fall to Explore Land He Named for Wife.

By the Associated Press.

BOSTON, June 10. — Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd plans a second Antarctic expedition, this one to study more closely Marie Byrd Land. The expedition would leave Boston early in the fall to remain in the Antarctic about two years. The expedition, as planned, is smaller than the first, experience having assisted Byrd in planning a more compact outfit. A larger number of sled dogs, about 150, will be taken, and two planes and several tractors have been included in the equipment.

One ship instead of two will be used to transport the equipment. The ship, built in the 70s and used for years by the Coast Guard, has been obtained, and is being fitted in Oakland, Cal. It is expected it will arrive in Boston July 1. The ship is larger than any ship Byrd has used before.

Lincoln Ellsworth, explorer, usually will be in the same region about the same time as Byrd. He has received permission to use Byrd's old base at Little America. The two expeditions are not alike, Byrd's object being to explore further the territory he named after his wife.

Nearly all the men who accompanied Byrd before will go with him again. Harold I. June will be senior pilot and Capt. Ashley McKinley will take charge of aerial survey. Paul Siple of Erie, Pa., who accompanied Byrd on the first Antarctic expedition as a scout observer, will also go. Siple will alternate with Byrd at the controls, but Byrd expects to act as his own pilot in a flight to and beyond the pole. The expedition would establish a base near the pole from which explorations may be made. The voyage will be Byrd's own financially.

WOMEN FAVOR WORLD COURT

Club Federation Sends Resolutions to "Party Conventions."

SEATTLE, Wash., June 10. — Resolutions urging "immediate adherence" to the World Court, determined support of the Kellogg peace pact and participation by United States in an international conference on economic problems, were sent today to Republican and Democratic national conventions by the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

The convention voted, 582 to 13, in favor of a bone dry plank in both the Republican and Democratic national platforms. This has been the traditional attitude of the organization.

WANTS ACTION ON PHILIPPINES

Hawes Presses Independence Bill in Senate.

WASHINGTON, June 10. — Action on the Philippine independence bill was demanded in the Senate last night by Senator Hawes (Dem., Missouri). He was supporting an attempt to get an agreement to consider relief legislation.

"There must come a time when the Senate will take up and dispose of the Philippine legislation," he said. "It not only represents strong sentiment in the House but in the Senate."

HOPES LAUSANNE PARLEY

WILL BRING ECONOMIC UPTURN

Neville Chamberlain Says Europe Nears Unanimity on Causes and Cure of Depression.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, June 10. — By a vote of 409 to 34 the House of Commons today passed the finance bill on third reading and sent it to the House of Lords, which promptly passed it on first reading. This is the enabling measure for the budget.

In the debate Lord Lansbury, the Labor leader, appealed for world co-operation in the economic field. Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, disagreed with him, asserting that co-operation was the only means by which the world's problems could be solved.

Chamberlain said there was now in Europe a closer approach to unanimity regarding the causes of the depression and the steps necessary to solve it. He expressed a hope that the Lausanne conference might be the turning point in Europe's contemporary economic history. Even if that hope were disappointed, he said, it did not mean further taxation was inevitable in England. He declared he did not believe Great Britain had come to the end of its resources in reducing expenditures.

PLEADS FOR FARM RELIEF

Oklahoma Congressman Warns of Serious "Rupture."

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 10. — Substantial farm relief legislation before Congress adjourns was described in the House yesterday by Representative McClintic (Dem., Oklahoma), as necessary to prevent "a rupture that will shake the very foundations of this Government."

"We must do something for the $2,000,000 who till the soil," McClintic said. "They must be given a program indicating the willingness of Congress to help out." McClintic said relief measures to date were helping "the top." "Too little trickles down," McClintic said.

Blanche Ring's Mother Dies.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, June 10. — The death of Mrs. Mena Frances Ring, mother of Blanche Ring, the actress, was announced yesterday. She died Wednesday night at the hotel where she had made her home for several years. She was 77 years old and was the widow of James H. Ring, for 20 years principal comedian at the old Boston Museum.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

MISS JANE CARTER BURNS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burns, 30 Lenox place, whose marriage to Crawford Johnson, son of Mrs. Boone V. H. Johnson, 5504 Chamberlain avenue, will take place Wednesday, June 12, will be attended by Mrs. Rolfe Wells Streett, formerly Miss Mary Lee Kennard, as matron of honor; Miss Lily Busch Magnus, maid of honor; Miss Ann Chittenden Ferris, the reigning Velled Prophet Queen; Mrs. Edward C. Simmons II, formerly Miss Jean Ford, a former queen; Miss Christine Jones and Miss Ethel Dyer, bridesmaids. The young women, with the exception of Miss Ferris, were presented to society three years ago, as was the bride-elect. Mrs. Streett gave the announcement party several weeks ago.

Dr. Crawford Johnson of New York will be his brother's best man, and Carter Burns, brother of the bride; John Crago, Howard Williams, John Hadley, Kansas City, and Adams McHenry, Dayton, O., ushers.

The ceremony, one of the important social events of the month, will take place at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the Burns home, the Rev. Sylvester Tucker of the St. Louis Cathedral officiating. A reception will follow.

Mrs. Harry C. January of Rockville, Md., and Mrs. George P. Pittmann, Saranac, N. Y., and Boston, both former St. Louisans, who have been visiting friends here this week, will depart Monday for their homes. They motored to St. Louis together. Mrs. January is with Mrs. Franklin Leavitt, 4957 McPherson avenue. She and her family will occupy their summer cottage at Saundersstown, R. I., for the season.

Mrs. Pittmann has divided her time between Mrs. Eugene C. Tittmann, 5412 Cabanne avenue, and Mrs. William Fitzhugh Randolph in Kirkwood. Mrs. Tittmann's son, George Jr., was graduated this week from John Burroughs School and will accompany his mother home.

Miss Marian Ewing, daughter of Nathaniel W. Ewing, 46 Kingsbury place, who attends Smith College, will sail June 25 from New York on the Lafayette to join Mrs. Ewing in Paris. Together they will tour Russia for several weeks. They will return in the fall and Miss Ewing will resume her studies.

Mrs. Ewing has been abroad more than a month.

Miss Nellie Bond Shields, daughter of Mrs. Walter Shields, will be hostess at a mixer tea tomorrow afternoon at the College Club in honor of Miss Jane Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Pierce Jr., 16 North Hanley road, and her fiancé, Ralph Kramer Brown. The wedding will take place in September.

About 50 guests have been invited to the tea. The fireplace, which almost covers one side of the living room, will be banked with spring garden flowers, and blossoms will be used on the sun porch, where punch is to be served. A tea table in the dining room will be decorated with yellow and white flowers.

Miss Shields will be a bridesmaid at the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene M. Funsten of Hampton Park have entertained this week Mrs. Funsten's brother-in-law and sister, Col. and Mrs. Alexander Bacon Cox of Fort Riley, Kan., and their son, Ensign Alexander B. Cox Jr., U. S. N., who were on the way home from Annapolis, Md., where Col. and Mrs. Cox attended the graduation of their son from the Naval Academy. Ensign Cox will be with his parents at Fort Riley until June 30, when he will report for duty on the U. S. Tennessee at San Pedro, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Funsten are entertaining their niece, Miss Virginia Funsten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fitzhugh L. Funsten of Kansas City. The visitor arrived two weeks ago and will be here until June 15, when she will visit the Cox family before returning home.

Col. and Mrs. Cox's daughter, Mrs. David Hawkins and Ensign Hawkins, who are in Washington State for a few weeks, will go to Los Angeles, Cal., for the Olympic games accompanied by Mrs. Hawkins' cousin, Miss Betty Collins, who is their guest, and afterwards will return to their home in Colorado, Cal.

Miss Mary and Miss Peggy Ainslie, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ainslie of Shaker Heights, Cleveland, with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Ida M. Joerder, formerly of St. Louis, left this morning by motor for their home following a week's visit in St. Louis. They were guests at Hotel Kings-Way. Mrs. Ainslie came to St. Louis for the reunion of her class at Mary Institute, from which she was graduated 25 years ago. The visitors were entertained at a number of informal parties. Mrs. Ainslie was Miss Myrtle Joerder.

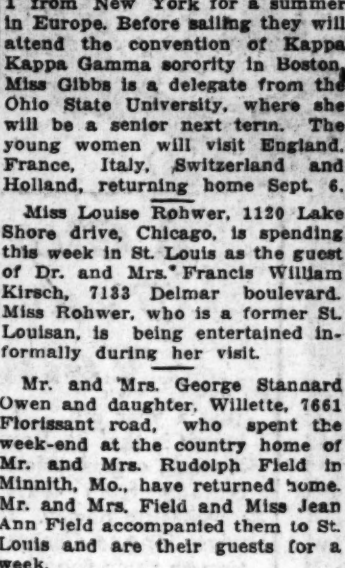

Miss Josannine Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Raymond Meyer, 6346 Waterman avenue, has returned from Briarcliff, Briarcliff Manor, N. Y., where she has been at school this year. She will leave St. Louis next Friday for Cambridge, Mass., where she will be a guest at the commencement week festivities at Harvard University, which will end with the spring boat races.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bullock of Carverville, departed Tuesday by motor for Cincinnati, where they will visit for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Keller of Carverville have returned home after spending three weeks in Excelsior Springs and Marshall, Mo.

Miss Jane Gibbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Gibbs, 225 Oleta drive, and Miss Katherine

Mr. and Mrs. Funsten are entertaining their niece, Miss Virginia Funsten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fitzhugh L. Funsten of Kansas City. The visitor arrived two weeks ago and will be here until June 15, when she will visit the Cox family before returning home.

Col. and Mrs. Cox's daughter, Mrs. David Hawkins and Ensign Hawkins, who are in Washington State for a few weeks, will go to Los Angeles, Cal., for the Olympic games accompanied by Mrs. Hawkins' cousin, Miss Betty Collins, who is their guest, and afterwards will return to their home in Colorado, Cal.

Miss Mary and Miss Peggy Ainslie, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ainslie of Shaker Heights, Cleveland, with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Ida M. Joerder, formerly of St. Louis, left this morning by motor for their home following a week's visit in St. Louis. They were guests at Hotel Kings-Way. Mrs. Ainslie came to St. Louis for the reunion of her class at Mary Institute, from which she was graduated 25 years ago. The visitors were entertained at a number of informal parties. Mrs. Ainslie was Miss Myrtle Joerder.

Miss Josannine Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Raymond Meyer, 6346 Waterman avenue, has returned from Briarcliff, Briarcliff Manor, N. Y., where she has been at school this year. She will leave St. Louis next Friday for Cambridge, Mass., where she will be a guest at the commencement week festivities at Harvard University, which will end with the spring boat races.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bullock of Carverville, departed Tuesday by motor for Cincinnati, where they will visit for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Keller of Carverville have returned home after spending three weeks in Excelsior Springs and Marshall, Mo.

MOTION PICTURE MATINEES FOR CITIZENS' RELIEF BUREAU

Price of Admission at Shows Tomorrow Afternoon Will Be Bundle of Clothing.

A matinee performance for the benefit of the Clothing Bureau of Citizens' Committee will be given tomorrow at 2 o'clock in 49 neighborhood motion picture theaters. A bundle of clothing will be the price of admission. Any cash receipts at the box office will be given to the bureau.

The program in each theater has been selected primarily for children. It was said by Fred Wehrenberg, president of the Motion Picture Theater Owners of St. Louis, Boy Scouts and members of the Parent-Teachers' Association will be at each theater to receive contributions.

Mrs. Irvin Bettman, chairman of the bureau, said the benefit performance was being given at this time because stocks were nearly exhausted and the bureau was unable to fill an average of 50 orders a day. A similar benefit late last summer resulted in collection of 25,000 bundles of old clothing.

BRAISED LIVER GOOD WITH VEGETABLES

An Economical Dish and Delicious if Well Prepared.

Either beef, lamb or calves' liver may be used, but when economy is to be considered we suggest the use of beef or lamb liver, as these are very much cheaper than calves' liver. Beef liver costs about 35 cents a pound, lamb liver about the same, while calves' liver is very much higher. In food value there is little difference between the three; the difference lies in the flavor and texture.

When properly cooked the cheap variety can be made just as appetizing and as tender as the calves' liver. To serve six people with braised liver buy two pounds in one piece, or if lamb liver is used, buy a whole liver which will weigh about one and one-half pounds.

Have one and one-half to two pounds liver cut in one piece. Soak in cold water for 15 minutes, drain, sprinkle with salt, pepper and flour. Melt three tablespoons fat in a deep frying pan and sear liver quickly on all sides in the hot fat.

Remove to a deep baking dish and surround with the following vegetables mixed together: One-half cup sliced onions, one cup diced carrots, one-half cup diced white or yellow turnips, one cup sliced celery and one-fourth cup chopped parsley. Pour in one cup tomato juice and drop in two whole cloves.

Cover closely and bake it a slow oven for one hour. Remove the cover, place thin strips of bacon close together over the liver, increase the oven heat and bake uncovered for 30 minutes longer.

Lift the meat to a hot platter, surround with the vegetables and serve with gravy thickened with two tablespoons flour mixed with a little cold water.

MOIST ROAST CHICKEN

We are asked how to roast a chicken so that it will remain moist. First, after trussing or tying the wings and legs firmly to the body, spread the chicken with a layer of drippings, or any cooking fat you prefer, then sprinkle with salt, pepper and flour. Put in a hot oven until the chicken begins to brown.

Reduce the heat to a moderate temperature, or 350 degrees, and continue cooking, basting every 15 or 20 minutes with the fat that forms in the bottom of the pan. Allow one hour for roasting; a three and a half to four pound chicken, counting 15 minutes after the chicken begins to brown.

As it takes about 15 minutes for the browning, one and a quarter hours in all should roast a chicken of this size. Over-cooking or cooking at too high a temperature will cause the chicken to dry out in roasting.

GREEN SALAD DRESSING

The following salad dressing is fine for the crisp green salads that are so popular for summer dinners. Mash the yolks of two hard-boiled eggs with one tablespoon of cold water, add gradually two tablespoons salad oil, one teaspoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon sugar, one teaspoon prepared mustard and mix all to a smooth thin paste.

Next stir in two tablespoons tarragon vinegar, or one of tarragon and one of white vinegar. Pour over mixed greens just before serving. The whites of the eggs may be chopped and sprinkled over the salad for garnish if desired.

Rice Cream

To one-third cup uncooked rice add one quart skimmed milk, one-half teaspoonful cinnamon and salt. Pour into a greased dish and bake three hours in a slow oven, stirring three times the first hour to prevent rice from settling. Should be creamy when baked.

20 YEARS OF ILL HEALTH

Then Mrs. Duke Discovered Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Of her own accord, Mrs. Duke set down and wrote us a glowing tribute to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN:

"I have been constipated all my life, which has been about 20 years, up until last year when I started eating your ALL-BRAN. Since I have been eating it, people tell me I am looking better, and I am sure that I feel a great deal better. — Mrs. L. W. Duke, 210 Hardin Ave., College Park, Ga.

Constipation is usually caused by lack of two things in the diet: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; Vitamin B to help give them tone. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides both of these dietary necessities, as well as iron for the blood.

Within the body, the "bulk" in ALL-BRAN forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

How much more natural it is to enjoy this delicious cereal than to risk taking pills and drugs—so often harmful.

Just eat two tablespoons daily—serious cases with every meal—for most types of constipation. ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Sold in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

CANNED VEGETABLES

Those who want to buy canned foods as economically as possible—and who does not, these days?—should remember that the different grades of these foods refer not the actual quality of the product as a food, but to the appearance and the texture. Fancy vegetables are the most succulent, the choicest in appearance and flavor, but have no more actual food value than the other grades.

Choice or extra-standard vegetables are the grades applied to slightly more mature vegetables than those designated as fancy. Standard grades will be less delicate in flavor than any of those just named, and firmer in texture. Just as good as food, however.

WEDDING BREAKFAST FOR THE JUNE BRIDE

Rose Decorations With Cakes and Ices in the Same Hue.

One June bride asks us to suggest a menu and decorations for her wedding breakfast, and perhaps some other bride will be glad to have it also, so it is given today. Roses are suggested for table decorations as they seem to belong to the bride, and this season are very lavish and not at all expensive.

The caterer will furnish ices and little cakes prettily decorated with the same flower. It is well worth a little extra expense to have these as nothing one can prepare at home has the same charm and touch of distinction.

A wedding breakfast is usually served at such a late hour that it is almost a luncheon, so rather more substantial fare may be suggested.

Menu.
Fresh red raspberry cocktail
Sweetbread, chicken and mushroom patties
Frozen fruit salad
Rolls—olives—nuts
Ices and cakes
Coffee

The combination of sweetbreads, mushrooms and chicken in patties is a very good one, and not served so often that it is tiresome as are some other patties.

Wedding Patties.
Take equal parts of diced cooked chicken and diced cooked sweetbreads and about half as much sliced cooked fresh mushrooms or canned mushrooms. For every cup of mixed ingredients take two-thirds cup of white sauce. Add chopped pimiento, paprika and salt to taste.

Make white sauce as follows: Melt four tablespoons butter, blend in four tablespoons flour, add salt and pepper, then pour in slowly two cups of cold milk, stir until thick, then cover and cook a little while more very slowly. This makes about two cups of sauce.

CANNED PINEAPPLE CAKE WITH NUT MERINGUE

One-half cup butter, four egg yolks, four tablespoons milk, one teaspoon baking powder, one-half cup sugar, one-half cup cake flour, two tablespoons cake flour, one-fourth teaspoon salt.

Cream butter and sugar together and add egg yolks well beaten. Mix thoroughly. Add the cake flour (one-half cup) which has been sifted before measuring, alternately with the milk. Stir the remaining two tablespoons flour with the baking powder and salt and mix well. Pour into two eight-inch round layer cake pans and add meringue topping. Bake in an oven of 325 degrees. Allow to cool and remove from pans and fill with pineapple filling, 1 cup whipping cream, one cup crushed can pineapple, drained; one-fourth teaspoon vanilla, one and one-half tablespoons powdered sugar.

Place one layer, meringue side down, on cake plate. Whip the cream, add powdered sugar, drained pineapple and vanilla. Then spread this filling on layer. Place other layer on top with meringue side up.

Crab Salad.
Mix canned crab with minced celery, using twice as much fish as celery. Add a little salt and paprika and moisten with mayonnaise.

Pineapple in Chicken Salad.
Pineapple added to chicken salad gives a fine flavor. Take one cup of diced pineapple to two cups of diced cooked chicken. Add one-fourth cup celery cut fine, and one and one-half cups of rich mayonnaise. Garnish with sliced olives.

Green Asparagus de Luxe.
Boil eight good size green asparagus stalks with a little salt. When well cooked, but still firm, put them on a platter. Cover with a little butter, and put in oven for a few minutes to brown.

COOKING TERMS DEFINED

Here are some of the simplest cooking terms defined. Poach—To simmer or boil very gently in hot liquid. Simmer—To cook at the lowest temperature next to boiling, or in other words, cooking just below the boiling point. The liquid should barely bubble as it cooks. Sauté—To fry in a small amount of butter or other fat, usually in a frying pan. Boast—To pour hot liquid or fat over food as it cooks. This is usually done at regular intervals. Fold—To gently lift one ingredient over another with a spoon, then mix with the downward motion, repeating the process until ingredients are blended. Usually used in blending beaten egg whites or whipped cream into a cooked mixture, into a cake batter or a gelatin mixture.

PLANNING THE MENU

Rebellion Against Sunday Roast and Elaborate Dinner Is Voiced.

Menus in the week's list published in this section today have been planned with the work factor strongly in mind. No one wants to spend much time in the kitchen this time of year, yet food must be prepared three times a day that will meet the nutritional needs of the family, that will be appetizing, economical and at the same time can be put through in the speediest time so far as cooking is concerned. A glance over the meals planned for this week will show some of the ways of accomplishing this.

The traditional Sunday roast can be done away with during the summer months without hurting anyone. Lamb chops are chosen for this Sunday, preceded by a jellied bouillon. This makes the meal seem more substantial and at the same time the gelatin really aids in digestion. The best part of the meal is that so little time is required to prepare it. The bouillon, in fact, should be made the day before; enough potatoes may be cooked on Saturday night to last for Sunday's dinner; the dessert may be bought ready to serve, and the berries crushed right after breakfast. That leaves only the peas to be shelled and cooked, the steak to be broiled and the potatoes to be creamed. Forty-five minutes and your dinner should be on the table ready to eat.

The fresh fruits and vegetables that are abundant now have been liberally used this week. All the berries, as well as stewed rhubarb, sliced oranges or bananas, make good shortcakes.

In buying vegetables on Saturday plan to have enough to make a vegetable salad for Sunday night. Almost any combinations might be used, including any leftovers that may be in the icebox. There should be some shredded cabbage, a little diced celery and one or two pintos or beans to add crispness and color. A good seasonable mixture uses one cup shredded raw cabbage, one-fourth cup each diced celery, shredded raw carrots, cooked string beans or lima beans or peas, one teaspoon minced onion, a minced pimiento. Moisten first with French dressing to give flavor and then serve with mayonnaise. One cup cooked potato may be added with excellent results.

Jellied Bouillon. Put two cups canned tomato juice and one cup boiling water in a saucepan with a sprig of parsley, two whole cloves and small onion sliced. Simmer for 15 minutes, then stir in three bouillon cubes and two teaspoons plain gelatin that has been soaked in one-fourth cup cold water for five minutes. Stir until gelatin is dissolved, then strain into bouillon cups and set aside to cool. Chill and just before serving break up jelly with a fork. Sprinkle a little minced parsley on top of each portion.

Raspberry Gelatin Whip. Pick over and wash two cups ripe raspberries. Sprinkle with one-fourth cup powdered sugar and set aside for at least 15 minutes. Dissolve a package of raspberry flavored gelatin in one cup boiling water and add one-half cup cold water. Cool until beginning to thicken, then beat with an egg beater until creamy. Fold in the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs and the raspberries. Pour into individual molds and set aside to chill and stiffen. Serve plain, with whipped cream or a custard sauce.

Vegetable Chowder. Almost any mixture of vegetables may be used for this providing it includes potatoes and onions: One cup potatoes cut in small cubes and one-fourth cup sliced onions in each four cups mixed vegetables. Put four cups mixed vegetables—onions, potatoes, carrots, peas, lima beans, corn, squash, string beans, celery, mushrooms, or whatever is convenient—in a saucepan with three cups boiling water, two teaspoons salt and one teaspoon sugar. Cover closely and boil gently for 20 minutes.

Then add one quart milk, three tablespoons butter and two tablespoons flour mixed to a smooth paste with a little cold water. Reheat to the boiling point and serve hot with crackers or croutons. The vegetables should be finely cut or coarsely chopped as the case may be so that they will cook quickly. They may be all raw or some may be left over from vegetables—the point is to cook them just long enough to have them tender and blend the flavors.

Grape-Nuts in a BRAND-NEW form!

Sauce Tartare.
Chop very fine one tablespoon each of capers, olives, pickles and parsley. Press in a cloth till quite dry. Blend gradually with one cup of mayonnaise.

Creamed Carrots.
Wash and scrape carrots; cut into thin slices. Cover with boiling water and boil until tender. Drain and mix with cream sauce or melted butter. Sprinkle with chopped parsley.

MARMALADE, JELLY AND JAM TIME HAS COME

Making a Few Jars at a Time Is an Easy Way to Fill the Pantry.

Now is the time to wash out all the empty jam and jelly jars and start filling them up with marmalades, jams, conserves and jellies for next fall and winter. Sugar is cheap, fruits are plentiful—and the following recipes are easy to follow and delicious to taste. Fruit jams and marmalades are wholesome and have a high energy value; they do much to add flavor, food value and interest to a meal. If a few jars are made at a time it is much easier than the old plan of whole days devoted to the job. Start in now with the fruits that are in season and fill a few jars each week.

Pineapple Marmalade.
Slice four medium sized ripe pineapples, peel and remove eyes, then shred with a fork or chop through the meat chopper. If the latter, place a bowl under the chopper to catch the juice that is sure to run out the back end. Slice one orange and one lemon in very thin slices, remove the seeds but do not peel. Put all the fruit together in a large kettle, heat very slowly to the boiling point and cook slowly for 20 minutes. Measure and add three-fourths cup sugar for each cup fruit mixture. Cook all together for 25 to 30 minutes or until thick. Stir frequently to prevent scorching. Pour into sterilized glasses and seal with melted paraffin.

Gooseberry and Currant Jam.
Another combination that is rather unusual and delicious. Remove the stems and tails from gooseberries that are quite ripe. Rinse in cold water, then mash and heat slowly to the boiling point. Measure and add one cup currant juice to each three cups gooseberries, add three-fourths cup sugar to each cup of the mixed fruit. Heat to the boiling point and cook until a little of the mixture jellies, when put on a cold plate. This will take from 25 to 35 minutes. Stir frequently to prevent scorching, and when done pour into hot sterilized glasses and seal with melted paraffin.

Three-Fruit Conserves
Makes use of cherries, strawberries and pineapple and is a rich, luscious conserve, fine to serve with cream cheese for party lunches. Put one quart pitted red cherries in a saucepan with one quart washed and hulled strawberries and four cups shredded fresh or canned pineapple. Add three and one-half pounds sugar and let stand for 30 minutes. Then heat slowly to the boiling point and boil for 10 minutes. Skim out the fruit and place in bowl; boil down the juice until it jellies, when a little is dropped on a cold plate. Put the fruit back in the syrup, boil for five minutes, pour into small sterilized preserve jars and seal at once. Half pint jars are best suited to the average sized family.

Mint Jelly.
Always popular, and while it may be made almost any time of the year, is best when the fresh mint can be used. Strain leaves from the stems until you have two cupfuls, pressed down. Put in a saucepan with four cups cold water, heat slowly to the boiling point and simmer for 15 minutes, mashing the leaves several times with a spoon while cooking. Strain; there should be two and one-half cups liquid. Press the leaves hard against the strainer to get out all the flavor possible. Color the juice with a little green vegetable coloring, add the juice of one lemon and six and one-fourths cups granulated sugar and stir until boiling. Stir in one cup liquid pectin, boil hard for half a minute, remove from the fire, let stand one minute, then pour into sterilized glasses and seal with melted paraffin. Makes six to eight glasses jelly.

Crushed Strawberry Jam.
Use large, ripe berries. Wash, hull and crush two quarts of the berries, a few at a time, in a large kettle. When the fruit is all mashed, add three pounds granulated sugar and mix thoroughly. Heat to the boiling point, stirring constantly and heating the mixture quickly. When boiling hard, stir in a scant half cup liquid pectin if remove at once from the fire and let stand five minutes, by the clock. Stir once or twice during this time and skim if necessary. Pour into sterilized jelly glasses and seal with melted paraffin, or pour into small sterilized preserve jars and seal immediately. Makes eight to 10 glasses.

Raspberry Jam.
Pick over and wash two quarts of ripe red or black raspberries, drain, put in a large bowl and crush thoroughly. Measure the crushed berries and to four cupfuls add seven cups sugar, mixing it in gradually. Heat slowly to the boiling point, stir constantly while heating. When the mixture begins to boil, increase the heat, bring to a hard boil and stir in a scant one-half cup commercial liquid pectin. Continue stirring and boiling for one minute. Remove at once from the fire, skin and let stand five minutes by the clock. Pour into sterilized jelly glasses and cover with melted paraffin. To make seedless jam, rub the mashed berries through a medium fine strainer, measure the pulp to make four cupfuls and follow the directions just given.

Rice Caramel Compote.
Boil one cup rice and keep hot. Make a sauce as follows: cook together two cups brown sugar, one cup cream, small piece of butter, until it is thick and creamy—just short of soft butter. Flavor with vanilla. Put half an aspicot in individual glasses, cover with rice and pour sauce over.

RED-RASPBERRY ICE CREAM

One quart red raspberries, one-half cup water, one cup sugar, three tups single cream, four tablespoons lemon juice, one-quarter teaspoon salt.

Crush raspberries, add water, heat quickly for about two minutes, stir and press fruit until juice flows freely. Strain through several thicknesses of cheesecloth. Add sugar to juice, stir until dissolved, and add the other ingredients.

For freezing use one part salt to four to six parts of ice, and turn the crank of the freezer slowly. After freezing remove the dasher, pack the freezer with more ice and salt, and let the cream stand for an hour or longer to ripen in flavor.

Tapoca Fruit Pudding.
Cook two-thirds cup granulated tapoca in four cups water, until transparent. Put into bowl, add one and a quarter cups brown sugar, one cup chopped raisins, two tablespoons preserved ginger, one cup chopped nuts. Mix thoroughly. Chill. Serve with whipped cream.

STUFFED PEPPERS
Six green peppers, 2 cups flaky cooked rice, or bread crumbs, two tablespoons butter or other fat, two cups cooked meat, one small onion, chopped fine, one-half teaspoon salt, or to taste, one-fourth cup chili sauce, catsup or meat gravy, one cup buttered crumbs.

Cut off stem end of pepper, remove seeds, boil pepper shells for five minutes in lightly salted water, and drain. Stuff peppers with a mixture made from the other ingredients, cover with buttered crumbs, and bake in a moderate oven for about 30 minutes, until peppers are tender and the crumbs are brown.

Sandwich Fillings.
All kinds of meat properly seasoned make delicious fillings for sandwiches. Meat should be cut across the grain in thin slices. If chopped, add to ham a little mustard and to beef or tongue a little horseradish sauce. To chicken and veal add finely chopped peppers, celery or celery salt. To fish, add lemon juice, onion juice or chopped parsley.

"I LOVE THE CLEAN, SPICY SMELL OF REAL WALTKE'S SOAP"

It's nice in the dish-pan and it's nice in the wash-tub! For more than twenty years, housewives in St. Louis have preferred WALTKE'S Extra Family Soap. WALTKE'S is made here in St. Louis. And during the last few years, its original fine quality has been constantly improved.

Clothes washed with WALTKE'S smell so fresh! The spicy, clean smell of WALTKE'S suds is different from that of any other soap. It tells you at once what good, clean, mild ingredients go into WALTKE'S. Just as the even-colored bar tells you WALTKE'S is carefully made.

To protect you from getting inferior family soaps purposely made to look like the original WALTKE'S, we now put a Blue Seal on every bar of genuine WALTKE'S Extra Family Soap.

Genuine WALTKE'S doesn't get gummy. It lasts well. It doesn't hurt your hands nor take color out of your clothes—although it does take the dirt out in a hurry! The new, bigger bar for 5c is a bargain.

If this Blue Seal isn't on it, it isn't

WALTKE'S EXTRA FAMILY SOAP

MASHED CARROTS
Eight to 10 medium-sized carrots, cream or rich milk, two to four tablespoons butter, one-half teaspoon salt.
Wash and scrape carrots, cut in small pieces, and cook in a small amount of boiling water. When carrots are tender, press them through a potato ricer. Add enough cream or top milk to make a creamy consistency, and the seasoning, reheat, and serve.

HELP YOURSELF TO HEALTH

W. K. Kellogg
KELLOGG COMPANY
TILE CREEK, MICH. LONDON, CAN.

Compare the freshness

THE minute you open a package of Kellogg's, you can tell that here are really fresh corn flakes. That delicious aroma is unmistakable.

And just compare the flavor and crispness. Did you ever taste any corn flakes so good?

Kellogg's always reach you oven-fresh. The flakes are protected by an inside WAXTITE bag which is sealed. A patented Kellogg feature.

Unconditionally guaranteed by W. K. Kellogg: "If you don't think Kellogg's the finest corn flakes you ever ate, return the empty red-and-green package and we will refund your money." Insist on genuine Kellogg's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Substitutes are seldom offered in a spirit of service.

LUNCHEON FISH FOR THE SUMMER GUESTS

Two Good Recipes Given Which May Be Used With Many Varieties.

Some women seem to think that fish is only for the winter menus, when it is particularly good in summer because, in the first place, the St. Louis markets are well stocked with fresh fish in many varieties, and in the second place fish is easily digested and offers a change from usual summer fare.

For luncheon at which guests are entertained, fish is a king, or queen, in a potato border is inviting. Sole, halibut, haddock or fresh salmon are good, and canned salmon, tuna fish or shrimp are also excellent served like this.

Fish a la King.
Two tablespoons butter, two tablespoons flour, one cup milk, one teaspoon salt, quarter teaspoon of paprika, two tablespoons minced pimiento, three cups cooked fish, one hard-cooked egg, toast or crackers.

Combine butter and flour smoothly in saucepan, add milk gradually, stir until boiling, cook three minutes, add salt, paprika, pimiento and fish. Heat all thoroughly, then stir in the egg, coarsely chopped, and serve on toast or crackers.

Omelette Fish in Potato Border.
Three tablespoons butter, three tablespoons flour, one and one-third cups milk, one-half teaspoon salt, one-sixth teaspoon pepper, a few drops lemon juice, one teaspoon minced parsley, one hard-cooked egg, optional, two cups of cooked flaked fish, mashed potatoes.

Combine butter and flour, add milk gradually, season and when boiling heat fish in sauce, stirring in parsley, lemon juice and finely chopped egg if used. Arrange border of hot mashed potatoes on serving dish and pour fish in center. Serve immediately.

MEXICAN STEAK
Two pounds bottom round beef, chopped, one egg well beaten, one-half cupful milk, one tablespoonful Worcestershire sauce, one tablespoonful prepared mustard, one tablespoonful minced onion, two teaspoonful salt, one-eighth teaspoonful pepper, one No. 2 can tomatoes, one cupful grated cheese, six strips bacon.

Combine chopped meat, beaten egg, milk, Worcestershire sauce, prepared mustard, minced onion, salt and pepper and pack into a loaf pan. Cover top with the tomatoes, drained (save the liquid for soup). Cover with grated cheese and lay bacon strips in a row over cheese. Bake in a moderate oven for one hour. Serve six.

CORN CHOWDER
One quart diced raw potatoes, one pint boiling water, four tablespoons diced salt pork, one onion, chopped, two cups canned corn, one pint milk, one-half teaspoon salt, pepper, two tablespoons chopped parsley or celery leaves.

Boil diced potatoes in pint of boiling water for 10 minutes. Fry salt pork and onion for about five minutes, and add these and corn to the potatoes. Cook until the potatoes are done. Add milk and salt and pepper, bring mixture to boiling point, and add parsley or celery leaves. Serve very hot in soup dishes and place two or three crackers in the dish before pouring in the chowder.

BUTTERSCOTCH PIE
Six tablespoons butter, two and one-half cupfuls scalded milk, three tablespoonfuls cornstarch, one and one-half cupfuls brown sugar, two eggs, separate, one-quarter teaspoonful vanilla. Pastry.

Melt butter and brown sugar together, and cook until a rich brown. Then add scalded milk and let heat until sugar is dissolved. Beat egg yolks slightly, add cornstarch and pour milk mixture over it gradually, stirring constantly.

Add vanilla, pour into the pastry lined pie plate, and bake. Cover with a meringue using the egg whites. Makes one nine-inch pie.

THREE-IN-ONE MILK SHAKE
One and one-half cups orange juice, three-fourths cup grapefruit juice, three tablespoons lemon juice, nine tablespoons honey, one-half teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon lemon extract, six cups milk.

Combine the fruit juices, add honey, flavoring and salt. Add to milk, beat until nicely blended, chill and serve. If honey is not available a sugar syrup may be made by boiling one cup of sugar and one-half cup water for five minutes, chill and use four tablespoons for this recipe.

MIXED SANDWICHES
Cream cheese, any of the ever-so-good fancy cheeses that are to be bought as reasonably, water-cress, anchovy paste, minced or deviled ham, shredded raw carrots and minced celery, cream cheese and pineapple—any of these will make attractive and appetizing sandwiches for the picnic supper.

Plan two or three kinds, using whole wheat bread as well as white, or raisin bread, rye, or nut bread with white for variety.

CHICKEN GIBLET SANDWICHES
Giblets one chicken, one tablespoonful cream, one hard-cooked egg, rye bread, one-half teaspoonful Worcestershire sauce, one teaspoonful tomato catsup, one-half teaspoonful salt, butter.

Boil the giblets in salted water until tender. Put them together with the hard-cooked egg through a meat chopper. Add the seasonings and cream; spread between buttered slices of rye bread.

PEANUT BUTTER CUP CAKES
One-half cup butter, one-half cup peanut butter, one cup sugar, two eggs, three cups sifted flour, four teaspoons baking powder, one-half teaspoon salt, one cup milk, one teaspoon vanilla.

Cream together the fat, peanut butter, and sugar, add the beaten eggs, and the sifted dry ingredients alternately with the milk. Add the vanilla. Bake in greased muffin tins in a moderate oven for about 20 minutes.

BLACKBERRY CUSTARD
Two cups blackberry juice, from canned or cooked fresh blackberries, one-half cup sugar (if juice is unweetened), three tablespoons cornstarch, one-fourth teaspoon salt, two tablespoons lemon juice.

Heat the blackberry juice in a double boiler, add the sugar, cornstarch, and salt which have been thoroughly mixed, stir until the mixture thickens, cover, and cook for 15 to 20 minutes. Remove from the stove, add the lemon

CREOLE SAUCE
Two tablespoons chopped onion, two tablespoons butter, one tablespoon flour, two cups canned tomatoes, one-half cup chopped celery, one green pepper, chopped, four tablespoons chopped cooked ham or bacon, chopped parsley, salt and pepper to taste.

Cook onion in butter for a few minutes. Sprinkle flour over onion and quickly stir in tomatoes, celery, green pepper, and simmer for about 20 minutes. Add ham or bacon, parsley, and salt and pepper, and serve at once.

Boiled Green Corn.
Do not husk until ready to boil, then remove all the silk, using a stiff vegetable brush. If doubtful of the sweetness of the corn, add one-half cup sugar to the boiling water. Cook young corn six to 10 minutes.

FROZEN CHEESE SALAD
To one package of soft cream cheese, add two tablespoons Roquefort cheese. Season with salt, pepper and one-half teaspoon onion juice. Add one-half cup highly seasoned French dressing and one-quarter cup chopped olives.

Four into trays of mechanical refrigerator and allow to freeze. Cut in cubes or slices and serve in mass of crisp lettuce, garnish with mayonnaise. Serve with crisp crackers.

Per and one-half teaspoon onion juice. Add one-half cup highly seasoned French dressing and one-quarter cup chopped olives.

Women said:
A soap that soaks out dirt can't be kind to hands

BUT that was before they used the New Oxydol

● There's an easy way to get clothes snowy white now without spending hours over the washtub, rubbing, rubbing, rubbing.

Try the New Oxydol—the amazing soap that makes 50% more suds—richer, more lasting suds that do the work for you.

Those extra suds are the secret of easy washing. Thick, lively suds that don't fizzle away, letting the dirt fall back on the clothes. Sweet smelling suds that soak clothes gleaming white, that make dishes sparkling clean.

Use enough for rich suds—Oxydol never balls up or leaves a scum—it softens the water. It's easy on hands and dainty things. You'll bless the day you learned its name.

"Say, Boss, we're just about out of WHITE BANNER again"

THE only trouble with White Banner, so the grocer says, is that it sells so fast they can't keep it in stock. It must be pretty good malt to be so popular. It is. Just ask any White Banner user. You'll be told that it's the very best on the market, and it's the same high quality every time. And here's why. White Banner is made in the world's largest malt extract factory by men and machines tuned to just one idea—to produce the highest quality malt from the choicest barley grown. And they do it. SPICED STRAWBERRIES ARE WINTER TREAT Unusual Treatment of Fruit Makes This a Much Appreciated Delicacy.

Before the strawberries are gone, try spicing some, and you will be delighted with the luscious results. But put them right away, for if the family tastes them now, there will be none left for winter when they will go so well with meat.

Take the following ingredients: Four cups (two pounds) prepared fruit, six and a half cups (two and three-quarter pounds) sugar, one-half cup vinegar, one teaspoon each cinnamon, cloves, allspice, one-half bottle (one-half cup) fruit pectin. Use fully ripe berries. To prepare fruit, cut small or medium berries in halves lengthwise; large berries in quarters. Measure sugar, prepared fruit, vinegar and spices into large kettle, mix well, and bring to a full rolling boil over hottest fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard three minutes. Remove from fire and stir in pectin. Then stir and skin by turns for just five minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Pour quickly. Paraffin hot jam at once. Makes about 18 eight-ounce glasses.

Poached Eggs in Cream. Put half cup of cream sauce into shallow baking dish. Open eggs carefully and place on sauce. Cook over boiling water from 10 to 15 minutes or until eggs are set or as firm as desired. Cover with half cup of cream sauce, sprinkle with chopped parsley and dust with paprika and serve.

A Suggestion for Supper Tonight—

Creamettes!—the more tender more delicious Macaroni product! Try it with diced fried ham and you'll declare it's the tastiest meal you've had in months. Economical and healthful.

NEW VARIETIES OF FRUIT FROM WEST

Plums and Apricots From California Arrive. Melons and Cantaloupes More Profuse.

Plums and fresh apricots came in this week from California to swell the tempting richness of the fruit stalls.

A few peaches arrived, but they were small and not ripe enough to be very appealing. Melons and cantaloupes from California also, and watermelons from Georgia came in freely and prices are lower than usual at this time of the season.

In fact, watermelon slices may be had at many restaurants and luncheon centers at tempting low cost. Red raspberries, blackberries and gooseberries were noted in colorful plenty this week also.

A fine dessert combining two popular fruits was served at one of the hotels this week. Cantaloupe, delicately chilled, was filled with red raspberries dusted with powdered sugar, with a topping of whipped cream sprinkled with chopped nuts. Not at all a desert for the lady who is reducing, but oh, so good!

And melon ball cocktails in grapefruit juice were delightful at another hotel. Small balls of the melon were evidently soaked for some time in the juice, well chilled, and then served with a garnish of mint leaves.

LAMB CASSEROLE IS EASY TO PREPARE

For dinner you will like a casserole of lamb with vegetables for several reasons—first because it can be prepared in the morning, put in the fireless cooker or a very slow oven and left to cook until dinner time.

If you are fortunate enough to have an oven with a regulator that shuts off the heat at a given time, you can use a more moderate temperature, leave the casserole to cook for three to four hours, then reheat it at dinner time. Buy lamb shoulder chops for the casserole, or have three or four pounds of the shoulder cut in short, thick pieces. The lamb casserole may even be cooked one day and reheated the next day.

RASPBERRY BAVARIAN CREAM

Pick over, wash and drain two cups ripe, red raspberries. Mash slightly and mix lightly with one-half cup powdered sugar and one teaspoon lemon juice. Soak two tablespoons plain gelatin in one-fourth cup cold water for 10 minutes, dissolve in one cup scalded milk and add one-fourth cup sugar. Cool and when beginning to thicken fold in one cup cream or evaporated milk whipped stiff. Continue folding the mixture over and over for two minutes, then fold in the fruit. Pour into small molds, set in a cold place to chill and harden. Turn out and serve with a few ripe berries as a garnish. Serves six. Strawberries or two cups mashed peaches may be substituted for the raspberries.

Sour Milk Griddle Cakes. Mix together one and one-fourth cups flour, one-half teaspoonful soda, one-half teaspoonful salt, one-tablespoonful sugar, one well-beaten egg and one cup sour milk. Beat well and bake on a hot griddle.

FOOD HABITS SHOULD BE CHECKED OVER

Well Balanced Plan Necessary to Maintain Health and Happiness.

What are your sins of omission or commission in regard to eating? Do you use common sense in planning your diet, in selecting foods and in the way you eat? Good health is the aim of everyone, and one of the best ways of attaining that aim is by establishing sane, well balanced habits of eating—habits that do not hamper or overtax digestion.

The proper digestion of food depends on the proper functioning of the digestive apparatus. If this is tired from overwork or over-indulgence; if it is hampered by fatigue poisons set up from physical overwork, it cannot do the work it should. Animals know enough to refrain from eating when they are tired or excited, but the intelligent human animal forces himself to eat, even when he is not hungry. This point, however, brings up another. It is entirely possible to form the habit of not eating enough, just as it is to eat too much. Since the reducing fad struck the country, many young girls, and older people who should have better sense, have dieted to such a point that it has become difficult for them to eat enough to supply their nutritional requirements. As a result, malnutrition and the diseases that follow in its wake have claimed a very large number of victims. Fortunately, fashion has decreed a return to curves, so perhaps the craze for extreme "slimming" diet is about over!

Childhood Influence. It is not only dieting that is to blame for poor eating habits, however. Often they are the result of too great an insistence on eating during childhood, or too great an emphasis on the importance of food. Some children can readily foster strange ideas in regard to food, and mothers who are having trouble "forcing" Johnny or Sue to eat will do well to bear this in mind.

Then, again, the rush of modern living is often a deterrent to good appetites. There is a rush to get off to school in the morning; a rush to get back at noon time; a rush to get in all the possible play time in the afternoon, and the time night comes the child is too fatigued or too excited to eat a good dinner. The same thing applies to people in business life. As a result we have a condition of irritability, nervousness, lowered resistance and eventually loss of weight—factors that lead in time to the inevitable "nervous breakdown."

Girls who are in business and who are eager to carve out careers for themselves, should realize the importance of an adequate amount of food and the development of good eating habits. Good health and efficiency depend on it, and employers are quick to note the results.

Don't Get in a Rut. Besides knowing how much to eat, it is important to know what to eat. It is easy to get into a rut with food, and the results are apt to be just as disastrous to progress as a rut in any other phase of living. Good nutrition calls for reasonable amounts of food that will meet the needs of the body. All kinds of wholesome foods should be eaten, and one of the first good food habits a child or a grown-up acquires should be a liking for a wide variety of foods. Fussy tastes and fussy appetites should be avoided like the plague.

Teach yourself never to eat when over-tired or over-excited, or when seriously upset by worry or anger. Never deliberately overeat or eat foods that you know will disagree with you, even if you like them. Eat a wide variety of foods and eat enough. These are simple rules—common sense applied to eating; if everyone followed them, there would be a holiday for many a doctor!

FRUIT NOTES

The best desserts for warm weather are those made from fruits, as the mineral acids in these foods are cooling and are an aid to digestion. Fruit appetizers are also welcome in a warm weather diet. One precaution is necessary, and this may be applied to the use of fruit in any form, be careful not to over-sweeten it.

When you have blueberries for lunch or dinner, save out a few to add to next day's breakfast or lunch muffins—one-half cup berries will dress up muffins for four to six people. Simply stir them into the muffin batter just before you put it in the pans.

Chilled canned grapefruit and sliced bananas make a good breakfast combination. Mix just before serving.

STEAMED FRUIT PUDDING

Cream together one-third cup shortening and two-thirds cup sugar. When well blended add one egg and beat hard. Next stir in three-quarters milk and two cups flour sifted with one-quarter teaspoon salt and two and a half teaspoons baking powder. This should make a stiff batter. Stir in two cups cut up fresh or canned fruit, or two cups berries; pour into a greased pudding mold and steam for two and a half hours. Serve warm with hard or liquid sauce. Serves six.

Baked Ham Slice. Put a slice of ham cut one and a half inches thick in pan. Season with prepared mustard. Spread with one and a half cups brown sugar. Cover with milk. Bake in a moderate oven until ham is very tender.

CORN FRITTERS GO WITH FRIED CHICKEN

Savory Combination Dear to Southern Cooks Fine for Sunday Dinners.

Of course, almost everyone likes fried chicken, but if it is served with corn fritters as they do in the South, ah, then it is something to dream about!

Try them for Sunday dinner soon, and win the applause of your family.

Only, you must resign yourself in advance to putting it on the repeat list for the summer. Select small chickens, allowing one-half for each person. Split, roll in seasoned flour and fry a golden brown in a generous amount of fat. Serve on toast and pour creamed gravy over all. Make the gravy by blending flour with part of fat left after frying and adding enough milk to make proper consistency. Sift together one-half cup flour, one-third teaspoon salt, dash of pepper and one-half teaspoon baking powder. Add one beaten egg and one cup of corn cut from cob. A little milk may have to be added also. Drop by spoonful on hot, well-greased griddle and cook a nice brown on both sides.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

AUBURN'S POINT RISE FEATURES A STOCK RALLY

Shorts Are Pressed in Auto Issue—Farm Implements Are Prominent on Advance in Securities—Turnover Is Largest of Week.

Number of advances, 307. Thru. Number of declines, 90. 241. Stocks unchanged, 110. 130. Total issues traded, 507. 528.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, June 10.—The stock market rallied in the late dealings today, as shorts were pressed in auto, sending that issue up 22 points, and farm implements moved upward, Case gaining 7. Advances of 2 to 4 points were numerous, and the closing tone was strong. The turnover approximated 1,300,000 shares, the largest of the week.

Farm implements were other features. The other factors influencing mentioned were indications that the outflow of gold was approaching completion (the dollar again strengthened notably), the tenor of the weekly mercantile reviews, and Washington rumor that Congress may adjourn by the end of next week. United States Steel's unfilled tonnage statement was only about as bad as expected, but there was a monetary sag in the ear, afternoon.

Auburn shot up about 22 points and closed near the top. International Harvester rose 2 1/2, along with Case. Net gains of 3 to 5 points appeared in Allied Chemical, American Tobacco, Eastman, Union Pacific, Coca-Cola, Air Reduction, American Telephone and Consolidated Gas, and others. Shares up 2 or more embraced United States Steel, American Can, Westinghouse and Woolworth.

In the foreign exchange markets, the French franc dipped below 3.4 cents for cables, or well under the point in which gold takings net the franc. Swiss francs and Dutch florins were also lower west of the day. Sterling was barely steady.

The upturn in wheat was perhaps not as sweeping as hoped for on publication of the Government crop estimate, presumably due to a disappointing response at Liverpool, but futures at Chicago closed with gains of 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 cents a bushel.

Wide Range to Auburn.
The upsurge in Auburn has been typical of this erratic issue. On Tuesday it sold slightly under 34, and today went momentarily under 37. This upswing apparently reflected a scramble of an overcrowded bear interest to cover, upon announcement of its price reduction expected. This was a little more than 200,000 shares, and this issue outstanding, so it is extremely sensitive. This compares with 435,000 shares of General Motors outstanding.

Indications of the outflow of gold may be drawing to a close, but a distinctly favorable effect upon sentiment. While the movement has not threatened to make serious inroads into our monetary base, a heavy outflow of the metal usually has an adverse psychological effect.

A clew to the liquidation of the first three days of the week appeared in the consolidated weekly condition statement of the New York City banks for the week ended Wednesday night, showing a drop of $78,000,000 in loans against security collateral, including both the loans to brokers and dealers, and those to individuals. This was in one quarter interpreted as indicating that the rally of late last week invited further liquidation of impaired loans.

The Federal Reserve System put $45,000,000 into Government securities during the past week, thus increasing the rate of purchasing power. There was a chase over the last previous report. Besides these purchases, there was a $15,000,000 decrease in currency circulation. A $124,000,000 gold loss was shown. Several of the regional banks employed Government securities for the support of currency, thereby releasing gold as permitted by the Glass-Steagall act.

Loans and investments of New York City member banks dropped $205,000,000, but this large decline was attributed in part to substantial repayments of borrowings by the municipality and to preparations for the current Treasury financing, which was heavily oversubscribed.

Bankers pointed out that further repatriation of metal under arm, which has already been deducted from our stocks, was likely; but with three of the European gold currencies favoring the dollar exports on an exchange basis made unprofitable.

ERRATIC TRENDS MARK TRADING IN BONDS

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, June 10.—The bond market today was unable to decide on any definite trend, and prices generally were irregular. The United States Government issue was especially steady and changes in its movements were usually limited to low fractions. The rails had their ups and downs, and the utilities and industrial bonds were also erratic. The market was generally quiet, with only a few transactions in the afternoon.

UTILITIES LEAD RALLY ON CURB EXCHANGE

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, June 10.—Utility stocks led a rally on the curb market today, and the list closed with many of them at new highs. The rally was led by the electric utilities, which were generally up from the previous day. The railroads were also up, but not as much as the utilities. The industrial bonds were generally flat, with some minor fluctuations.

If you ask My Opinion

Martha Carr

MY DEAR MRS. CARR: I have been a silent reader of your column for some time and have had many of my problems solved by your advice. I now want to ask you about something. There is a young man whom my brother met by chance. They frequently talk to each other. I know he is and he knows my name and we have never been introduced. We often meet but neither one speaks. Since it is the girl's place to speak first, shall I speak to him? Every way, so I don't want him to think I'm acting silly or wanting to flirt. My brother has never had a chance to introduce us.

Please tell me, Mrs. Carr, how should a girl answer a boy when he thanks her for a dance? When your employer enters and says, "Good morning, Miss Andrews," or "Good morning, Sally," should the answer be the same, mentioning his name, or just "Good morning"?
IGNORANT MISS.

Your brother should be the one to introduce you. He could make a chance, but before doing so, he could say, casually, some time, "I would like to have you meet my sister."

If this man is one of experience he will appreciate the fact that the introduction was not forced on him without giving him a chance to indicate whether he was interested or not. Your brother will know from his manner whether this should go any farther. Also if he is a man of experience, he will be surprised, not to say disappointed, if you spoke to him without introducing him to your brother.

When the boy thanks you for a dance, just smile sweetly and bow your head. Or if you have really enjoyed it, say, "That was fine."

It would be courteous and polished to use the man's name (your employer) when you return his "Good morning," whether he calls your name or not. "Good morning, Mr. Smith."

MY DEAR MRS. CARR: When returning from an evening date with a boy, would it be proper to invite him to call again, or should I ask when he can come again? If I should ask him to call, can I do this without seeming extravagant to see him?

CONSTANT READER.

It would be polite to make your invitation general, saying, "Come again," or "Come over (not out) some time." He should be the one to make a definite date.

MY DEAR MRS. CARR: I consider your advice valuable and have a few questions to ask. 1. I am 25 years old and find my hair turning gray. It seems to be dying and I would like to know what to do about it. 2. I am interested in beautifying my home with flowers, especially perennials, but do not know how to start and care for them. I would appreciate any information on that subject and would like to hear from anyone who has the name and address of a second-hand store in St. Louis.

INTERESTED.

1. Your hair needs more brushing. A scrubbing oil the night before shampooing and possibly some electric or blue light treatment. I would go to a professional at first and find out just what is the trouble. 2. You will find three little pamphlets in the Planning Four Grounds by Alfred C. Hotter, "Personal Gardening," F. F. Rock, and "Annual Gardening," by the same author, quite helpful. Get a plant and seed catalogue will help. Visit Shaw's Garden and ask there for pointers. Even a visit will be an inspiration. 3. It would be impossible for me to give you names and addresses of business places. That would make this column too much of a business directory.

MY DEAR MRS. CARR: I know my problem may seem unimportant, compared to the more serious ones you have to deal with. I have been trying for two months to find a means for us girls to join a league. We are just out of high school (some are in college) and would like to continue playing as a team which was formed at school. We are at a loss how to go about getting some firm or someone interested in our team. MR. TOTEM TOM TOMS.

Why not try the advertising column? But try to be explicit.

Letters intended for this column must be addressed to Martha Carr at the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Mrs. Carr will answer all questions of general interest, but, of course, cannot give advice on matters of a purely legal or medical nature. Those who do not care to have their letters published may enclose an addressed and stamped envelope for a personal reply.

receiving them to the living room, and if they start to your room, make some excuse not to go upstairs. At first you might give them as plain as any words, "Now, is that nice?" I'm surprised. If that isn't strong enough, you can come right out and say, "Please! I like a little privacy!" I am afraid if that doesn't work, you will have to take to turning the key in your door and putting it in your pocket or under the bed in the family room. If you are boarding, keep them in the living room.

MY DEAR MRS. CARR: I have been going with a girl for two years. For the last six months we have argued a lot, because of her carelessness. We love one another very much. I was afraid at first that it was because of my loving my love for her, but I can't stand the thought of giving her a chance to leave me. I have asked her to be more careful about these things. I know she is tired, but she is just careless and can't help it. Lovingly yours, JERRY.

If you mean personal carelessness, which from your letter I suppose you do, it puts you in a rather awkward position. Perhaps you could mention some time how fast and fresh some girl looks when you chance to see her.

MY DEAR MRS. CARR: I am a boy in high school. This year in our Glee Club, I didn't make the quartet, after the teacher telling me I had the next best voice in the school. Then at Commencement Exercises we had a double mixed quartet and I didn't make that either. The ones who made the quartet were seniors, excepting one. Would it be polite for me to ask what's wrong?

A BROKEN VOICE.

There would not only be nothing amiss about your asking, but it seems to me it is the least the teacher could do after his remarks encouraging you to explain kindly. It may be that you do not keep the pitch very well, which is essential in any singing, but particularly in ensemble work. But, while it might be easier for the teacher to slide out of telling you this, it is not fair for him to do so. It might help you to correct a defect of which you are not conscious and make a chance for you next year.

CONSTANT READER.

MY DEAR MRS. CARR: I have an important matter to discuss with you. I have three girl friends who are so jealous and inquisitive that I don't know what to do about it. They come to see me and ask me what clothes I get, and into my clothes closets, go all through my belongings to see if I have anything new.

It hurts me terribly, because I never think of doing that. I never think of doing that. I never think of doing that.

Fashions Adapted To Bicentennial

NEW YORK.
In keeping with the George Washington bi-centennial are the new printed handkerchiefs which boast in patriotic colors a cherry, a colonial pump, Martha's little fan, a hatched, and a cracked Liberty bell. Glazed cherries are the favorite boutonnières of the day.
Little hats reminiscent of the type Martha Washington wore are also making their appearance. A woman, dressed in yellow, was seen wearing such a bonnet—a pancake affair of yellow tied to one side of the head with a black velvet ribbon. A velvet bow decorated the top of the hat.
Evening dresses are receiving so much attention that beach costumes try to borrow their popular lines, to judge from the new beach dresses shown by Augustenbernd, which are designed on evening gown lines with wrap-around buttoned skirts.
Evening dresses in their own right, at that house, feature trailing skirts that are only moderately full, finished with circular flares. Trimming employs many large self bows and some shirring.
Lucile Paray features the waist boleros matching the evening dresses and uses black and white lace in sheer patterns for evening gowns. Stiff satin and dull crepe also are used for evening.
A black lace cape accompanies a sheer black lace evening dress with a large floral pattern in Augustenbernd's summer showing. A variation in evening wraps, also, are the pink and red short velvet evening coats.
Fine pleated day skirt panels and pleated frillings are style notes emphasized by Lucile Paray. Many of Lucile Paray's dresses have high round necks, with two-tone rope twist collars, both dresses and coats feature the deep loose armhole.
Ensembles of red or green crepe dresses, accompanied by black wool coats, are sponsored at that house. Black astrakhan trimming, some beaver and silver fox are favored.
Greens in all shades are seen in Lucile Paray's costumes. Plum is a new tone for evening, and blue and pink have important place.
Back fastened fur coats are used with the molded waistline.

HOOVER AIDS HOPE TO KEEP WET-DRY
FIGHT OFF FLOOR

Advisers Think This Can Be Done by Avoiding Any Subterfuge in Word-ing of Platform.

PRESIDENT BUSY WITH CONFERENCES

Consults Mills and Hurley, Who Will Be His Principal Leaders at Next Week's Convention.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, June 11.—President Hoover today turned his attention to the affairs of the Republican National Convention, talking with Chicago by telephone and conferring with Secretaries Mills and Hurley, two of his close political advisers, who will leave shortly for the convention.

Intimations were given at the White House that the President was giving attention to the prohibition question among other problems to be dealt with at the convention.

His advisers, on the basis of reports from Chicago this morning, held the opinion that the wet and dry problem would not be fought out on the convention floor.

In one authoritative quarter, it was said the expectation was that the question could be kept from the floor if the plank were phrased clearly by the Resolutions Committee and no subterfuge of wording employed.

Mills, who has been an almost constant conferee of the President on both political and economic affairs, is slated to be a member of the Resolutions Committee.

He told newspaper men today after a long conference with Hoover, that the New York delegation apparently wished him to take this post and that he would not like to decline any invitation Mills planned to leave this afternoon for Chicago.

Hurley, likewise active politically in the President's behalf, is probably could not leave until tomorrow or Monday.

The President decided against spending the weekend as usual at his Rapidan camp in the Blue Ridge Mountains. He will remain close to his desk over the weekend and throughout the convention.

G. O. P. Wets and Drys Call for Convention Rallies.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 11.—Both organized wets and drys, arriving here for the Republican national convention, to open Tuesday, have organized a series of demonstrations in an attempt to strengthen their respective forces for the fight over the party's prohibition plank.

The wets made plans for a five-day demonstration to begin tomorrow and the drys for a series of meetings, described by F. S. McBride, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, as "a war to arms."

The wet demonstration was ranged under auspices of the C. S. and the Republican Citizens Committee Against Prohibition. Already Henry H. Curran, president of the Association Against Prohibition Amendment, has issued a statement demanding a repeal plank.

Curran pointed to the recent elections in Florida, Indiana and North Carolina "as a concrete proof of what is going on in the popular mind." He said "there is an angry revolt against prohibition throughout the country and it is the amazing study in national psychology seen in years. The tide is turning our way."

In the minds of the delegates primary interest seems to be degree of wetness of the Republican platform. The questions of national committee and where there will be any definite movement to replace Vice President Curtis running mate for President Hoover have been relegated to the background.

While incoming delegates are free to speculate over the platform possibilities, party leaders are silent. What platform proposition James Garfield of Ohio, the chairman, designate of the Resolutions Committee, may be bringing to Chicago from Washington, remains to be disclosed, but few think the chances will be for less than a repeal of the prohibition amendment. Garfield is expected tomorrow.

The official order of business for the convention, announced to provide for only three days of sessions beginning at 11 a. m. (local daylight time) Tuesday ending Thursday night. The expected debate over prohibition
